SCHOOLS, CHADWICK, MISSOURI,

Memoriam

We lost a friend and helper when Mr. Vernon O. Burgess, our social studies instructor, succumbed to a heart attack February 1, 1951.

During his short stay with us here, we had learned to love and respect him. His fatherly advice and jovial smile found a place in our hearts. His going is a sad reminder that we all must yield to the Grim Reaper.

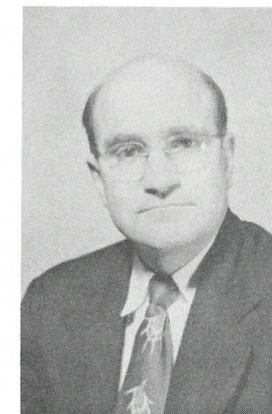

We believe these pages are made better and more meaningful by a memory of him. To him we dedicate this book.

Senior Class History

It seems as though four years have flown since a group of nineteen students enrolled in the Freshman Class of 1947-48. We felt like a group of first graders, I must say. But, with the help of the faculty and upper classmen, we made it through the year without a single mishap.

By the second year we had begun to learn what it meant to be high school students. It has been said that the Sophomore year doesn't mean as much to anyone as the other three. But perhaps we did feel somewhat superior to the Freshmen. And you couldn't ask for a better faculty than we enjoyed throughout the year.

Our Junior year came and we were over half way through high school. That year was full of excitement. We really had to hustle as we had a big job ahead of us. By raising sufficient funds, we financed the Junior-Senior Banquet. We could hardly wait for the next year to roll around.

Finally, we have come to our most important year. Here we are Seniors with thirteen enrolled. By now we feel like brothers and sisters, dreading for the last day to come, even though it will be our greatest achievement.

A few students dropped from school the Freshman year. They were: Merrill Coffey, Nancy Ewing, Marjorie Jones, Jack Cornog, Lewis Guerin, and Norma Jones.

Our second year Edwin Coleman transferred to Forsyth school, and Norma Jones re-entered during the second quarter.

There were two new students our third year, Almus Gray, and Anna Mae Grishman.

At present, the members of our class are: Ruby McKedy, Norma Jones, Irene Hawkins, Darrell Workman, Joe Loomis, Jim Rozell, Hugh Beth, Gordon Jones, Almus Gray, Dave Cornog, Leroy Wade, Ervin Walker, and Morris Harris.

Our class officers during our Freshman year were: Mary Lou Jenkins, President; Ruby McKedy, Vice-President; Irene Hawkins, Secretary and Treasurer; and Mr. B.B. Smith, Sponsor. Mary Lou Jenkins and Norman Saltee were Queen and Prince Charming. The second year Irene Hawkins was our President; Darrell Workman, Vice-President; Ruby McKedy, Secretary and Treasurer. Miss Ada Stevens acted as our class sponsor. Irene Hawkins and Hugh Beth were Queen and Prince Charming.

During our Junior year our class officers were: Irene Hawkins, President; Jim Rozell, Vice-President; Ruby McKedy, Secretary and Treasurer. Mrs. Genevieve Hughes was our class sponsor. Irene Hawkins and Jim Rozell were Queen and Prince Charming.

This year Jim Rozell is President; Darrell Workman, Vice-President; Ruby McKedy, Secretary and Treasurer. Mrs. Genevieve Hughes is Sponsor. Ruby McKedy and Gordon Jones, Queen and Prince Charming.

Class Will

We bequeath to the Freshman class our love to study and ability to learn.

We leave to the Sophomores our easy going personality.

We, the Seniors, will with all our hearts, to the Junior class the honor and hope of becoming a Senior next year.

I, Jim Rozell, will my great basketball ability to Chip Heyn.

I, Almus Gray, will my good behavior to Darrell Anderson.

I, Ervin Walker, will my love for studying to Isacc Newberry.

I, John LeRoy Wade, will my stubbornness to Bill Shipman, and my hair cut to Wayne Casey.

I, Irene Hawkins, will my chipped spectacles to Marynel Walker.

I, Ruby McKedy, will my worn out typing fingers to Huba Morrison.

I, Norma Jones, will my big mouth to Betty Lilly, and my loud yelling at ball games to Janie Loomis.

I, Darrell Workman, will my ball suit to Wayne Beth.

I, Joe Loomis, will my warm up jacket and basketball management to John Brown.

I, Dave Cornog, will my worn out play book to Mrs. Hughes.

I, Gordon Jones, will my curly hair to Russell Jones.

All broken combs, left over bottles of hair oil, old tubes of lipstick, finger nail polish bottles, pimples, toe nails, note books, pencils and text books will be sold at public auction to buy the Janitor all his equipment.

At the beginning of the second semester Lewis Guerin and Charles McKedy dropped school which left us only twenty-one members.

Activities

As time goes on and we continue to grow, allied and extra-curricular, demand more of our time and energies. We recognize the class-room work to be the main and major reason for our being here, but the activities cannot be overlooked. These activities lend to our social training, and some of them are an economic help. The school carnival has come to be recognized as an annual event. During the last three years, the carnivals have ceiled the gym, built bleachers in the gym, and bought musical instruments for a twelve-piece band. That is a small band, but it is a good beginning toward a large band.

Both the Juniors and the Seniors worked hard in producing their plays. The Seniors selected "The Cambells Are Coming" as their play. The Juniors chose "Light The Fuse". Both plays were a success.

In the afternoon of December twenty-third a large crowd enjoyed a Christmas Program which consisted of candle lighting and carol singing. A number of high school students gave the play "Christmas Carol". At the close of the program there were gifts exchanged among the students and friends.

The continued success of these activities will facilitate perpetual improvements in our system.

Sports

Basketball

Although the Chadwick Cardinals came out on the short end of the won-lost column, there has been a definite showing of improvement throughout the season. Many fans predict that the season of 1951-52 has much in store for the cagers.

The scoring burden this season fell on the shoulders of Jim Rozell, Darrell Workman, and Bill Shipman. Morris Harris and Hugh Beth began to show improvement at the latter part of the season and showed that they were not to be counted out of the race. Russ Jones, a strong reserve, was to be relied on for defensive work and as an able rebounder. "Tiny" Paterson was always capable of giving the fans some thrills with his quick, darting movements and thrilling shots.

The nucleus of next season's team will be built around Bill ("Shorty") Shipman, the sensational pivot man. Shipman will have a potent crew working with him in the forms of Joe Rozell, Roy Coffey, Chip Heyn, Kenny Applegate, Wayne Beth, Paul Paterson, Russ Jones, Richard Groves, Jim Walker and Clarence Allen.

The Job team is a strong contender for top honors at the annual Job tourney at Forsyth this year.

The Job team narrowly missed scoring upsets against the powerful "A" teams of Gainesville and Hollister.

From where we sit, it looks like the Cardinals will have a very formidable team next season and should be difficult for any local team to defeat.

Softball

Due to our poor play ground facilities, we didn't play any softball last fall but are going to schedule some away-from-home games this spring.

Volleyball

Our volley-ball girls only played two games this year. Bradleyville and Abesville handed them defeats by small margins.

After all it is not so much "who won" as it is "how you played the game."

Jokes

Ada: "Pete, this isn't our baby. You took the wrong carriage."
Pete: "Shut up. This one has rubber tires."

Father: "Who broke the chair in the living room last night?"
Irene: "It just collapsed, father, but neither one of us was hurt."

Ivan H: "My dad has a wooden leg."
Joe R: "That's nothing. My sister has a cedar chest."

Pullman porter: "May I brush you off, Madam?"
Mrs. Brown (icily): "You may not. I'll descend in the usual manner."

Betty B: "So he's a confirmed bachelor?"
Janie L: "He is now. He sent his picture to a Lonely Hearts Club and they sent it back with a note saying, 'We're not that lonely!'"

Slow Waiter: "All right! Madam, all right! You'll get served in time."
Mrs. Halford: "I daresay I shall, but I'm anxious to get through this meal before the prices rise again!"

Gorden: "My uncle has ten gasoline stations, and not one of them has a roof."
Russell: "No roofs? What's the big idea?"
Gorden: "Cheaper. No over head."

Mr. Snowden: "I understand your wife is a finished singer."
Mr. Hughes: "No, not yet, but the neighbors almost got her last night."

Norma: "Oh, doctor, every night, I see the ghost of my departed relatives sitting on the bed posts. There they sit, waiting, waiting, waiting. What shall I do?"
Doctor: "Sharpen the tops of the post."

Morris H: "Why do you say the radio will never replace the newspaper?"
Joe L: "Ever try swatting a fly with a radio?"

Mrs. Gilbert: "And you call me absent minded! You left your umbrella back there in church and I had to bring yours and mine both out."
Mr. Gilbert: "But, dear, neither of us brought one to church."

First Indian: "Ugh."
Second Indian: "Ugh?"
First Indian: "Ugh!"
Second Indian: "Ugh."
First Indian: "Ugh! Ugh!"
Second Indian: "Don't changeum subject."

Lorene: "What are the sister states?"
Shirley: "I'm not sure, but I think they are Mrs. Sippi, Ida Hoe, Miss Ouri, Cally Fornia, Allie Bama, Louisa Anna, Della Ware, and Minnie Sota."

Absent-minded Mr. Gott was searching for his hat. He was very grateful when a passerby pointed out that it was on his head.
"But for you, sir," he said, "I would have had to go without it."

Bill B: (at the movies): "Can you see all right?"
 Marynel W: "Yes."
 Bill B: "Is there a draft on you?"
 Marynel W: "No."
 Bill B: "Seat comfortable?"
 Marynel W: "Yes."
 Bill B: "Mind changing places?"

Mrs. Hull: "Is it true that money talks?"
 Mr. Hull: "That's what they say."
 Mrs. Hull: "Then I wish you'd leave me some. I get so lonely."

Ruby: "What's the trouble, Bob?"
 Bob: "Puncture. Left front tire."
 Ruby: "You should have been more careful. They told us back at that filling station to watch for the fork in the road."

Leroy W: "Ouch! That water is so hot it burned my hand."
 Darrell: "Serves you right. You should have felt it before you put your hand in it!"

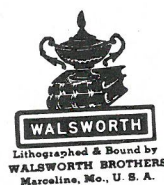

Hugh: "I wish I had enough money to buy an elephant."
 Ervin: "What on earth do you need an elephant for?"
 Hugh: "I don't. I just need the money."

Cleo: "I like best a face that is almost pretty!"
 Chip: "Why? Because, you never know what's going to happen to it?"

Sign on Ray Rozell's farm:
 "Attention Hunter's. Please don't shoot at anything on my farm that isn't moving, it may be my son, Jim."

Sharon Baker rushed up to Joyce Essary and exclaimed, "Hey, Kid, I've lost four pounds."
 Joyce: "Turn around. I think I've found them."

"We editors may dig and toil
 Till our fingertips are sore;
 But some wise guy is sure to say,
 "I've heard that joke before."

Lunch Room Scene

We have had a very successful lunch program this year. It has been under the supervision of Mr. Gott and his able assistants, Mrs. Loomis and Mrs. Case, serving as cooks.

The lunch program has proven to be a valuable asset to our school.

The lunches are enjoyed by the student body and faculty. About 90% of the student body patronizes our lunch room.

We are patiently waiting the time when we will have a new lunch room and kitchen.
