SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

When the Freshman class enrolled in September of 1960 we had 22 members. They were: Warren Dewitt, Sue Finney, Janet Jenkins, Johnny Walker, Anna Lee Barr, Mary Weagley, Ben Gardner, Janice Hawkins, Dale Stafford, Regina Hughes, Gary Bilyeu, Wanda Nalley, Doris Lilly, Violet Moody, Janie Ewing, Donald Morgan, Joe Applegate, Leo Rysted, Connie Braden, Charles Moody, Alberta Hunt and Linda Jones.

Our sponsor was Mr. Wren. Our class officers included:

President.....Janet Jenkins	Secretary...Wanda Nalley
Vice-President...Johnny Walker	Reporters...Connie Braden & Janie Ewing.

During our Sophomore year we lost Janie Ewing and Sue Finney. Sue is now married. Richard Younge joins our group.

Mr. Rumley took on the task of sponsoring this energetic group. Our class officers were:

President.....Wanda Nalley	Treasurer.....Violet Moody
Vice-President.....Janet Jenkins	Reporter.....Doris Lilly
Secretary.....Mary Weagley

That year our class walked off with the honors at the Chadwick High School Carnival. Due to our hard working classmates and an industrious sponsor, Doris Lilly and Johnny Walker reigned over the festivities.

At the beginning of our Junior year we gained two new students, Jane Willis and Doyle Pettit, but we lost Charles Moody.

With our Junior year came the problem of sponsoring a Junior-Senior banquet. Mr. Jones was our sponsor and with the help of capable officers the affair finally came off. Our class officers included:

President.....Johnny Walker	Treasurer.....Violet Moody
Vice-President.....Ben Gardner	Reporter.....Mary Weagley
Secretary.....Dale Stafford

In order to raise money we sold popcorn, pie and coffee at the basketball games. We also presented a play, a three act hillbilly comedy, entitled "A FEUDIN' OVER YONDER." From this play we managed to clear eighty dollars.

The class decided on the Monterey Restaurant in Springfield as the scene of the Banquet. Everyone seemed to have a very enjoyable evening.

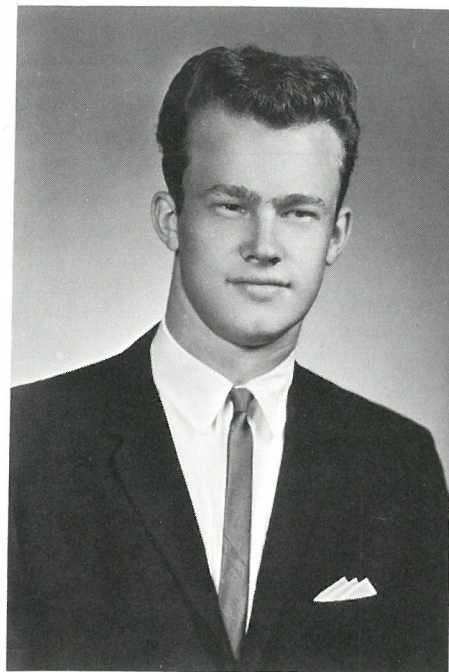

Back to pencils and back to books! But not for long. For soon the excitement of ordering our Senior rings became ours to remember. Now at long last we could look forward to becoming Seniors with some visible hope.

When we watched our friends graduate that night in May, 1963, it still didn't seem possible that one day soon we would be going through the same motions. But the time is at hand. We are Seniors at last and are enjoying the privileges that go with this our last year of High School. The many responsibilities that are now ours we willingly accept. Warren DeWitt has left our group but two new members were added as sponsors. They are Mr. Hall and Mr. Ward. Our class officers are:

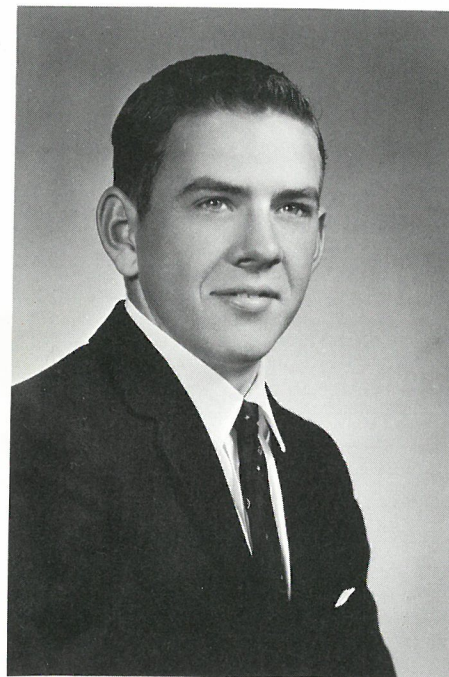

President.....Johnny Walker	Treasurer.....Dale Stafford
Vice-President.....Ben Gardner	Reporter.....Wanda Nalley
Secretary.....Richard Younge	Reporter.....Violet Moody

You have just read a brief sketch of our past four years of high school. This is not, nor could it be, a complete account of all the joys and sorrows that are now ours to remember and cherish. We wish to express appreciation to the parents, teachers and interested individuals who made these years so unforgettable.

Our high school education is something that will shine through out the years to come. Our final hope is that you who follow will be able to realize and appreciate the true advantage of attaining an education.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

In my office overlooking New York City I hold down the job of editing "LIFE" Magazine. My name is Violet Moody and I have been editor for ten years.

Due to the recent flood of applicants to Chadwick High School, I have been asked to cover the graduating class of 1964, of which I was a member. I phoned Judy Johnson, my star photographer, and we left for the airport on our adventure.

As we glanced over the names of my classmates, Judy suggested that we begin with the school's ace basketball player, Dale Stafford.

On arrival to Bombay, India, we were met by Dale and his charming wife, Lolita. We were fortunate to catch Dale in India as he is a world famous traveler.

Dale told us that an old friend was here in town and insisted that he surprise us with a visit to her supper club.

We were surprised to find Alberta Hunt. Yes it is still "HUNT". She never married because she believed husbands were too much trouble. Alberta is now famous for her new creation--Joe Hunter A' La Mode.

India was nice, but we had to move on if we were to complete our adventure. Our next stop was Hong Kong, China.

The Chinese now look up to a new philosopher. Confucius is out-dated. In his place is Joe Applegate. I asked him how he ever became a philosopher. He said it wasn't hard as all you needed was an inside connection with the Nabisco Fortune Cookie factory of Battle Creek, Michigan.

A jet airliner took us from the land of rice to the plains of Kenya, Africa.

Wanda Nalley, the great white medicine woman met us and escorted us safely past the hostile natives. She didn't seem the least bit perturbed by the poisoned darts the natives held to their lips. Suddenly one gave a yell of pain and dropped to the ground. Wanda gave a simple glance and walked on. In a state of semi-shock I asked what happened and she calmly replied, "He inhaled". As alarming as this incident was we continued to follow her into the thickets and jungle grass until a straw hut came into focus. From the hut came the sound of a suffering human. We cringed at the eerie sight we saw within the hut: a poor native lying on the floor in apparent agony. Judy asked Wanda what was wrong and she answered in her usual nonchalant manner; "A tough case. Poor chap has an infected hair on his toe-nail." In dismay we left with the firm conviction that the jungle heat had been too much for poor Wanda.

From Kenya we launched seaward aboard the USS Geronimo. There we met Mary Weagley and her fourth husband, Alfred Hitchcock. The marriage to Mary has inspired Mr. Hitchcock to write many more mysterious stories. The apex of our sailing venture was probably the sudden strange disappearance of Mr. Hitchcock. Although the police suspected Mary of foul play they were unable to prove it and thus became baffled. Had Mary committed the perfect crime?

The ship docked at Harlem, Netherlands and here we found that Johnny Walker had just been promoted to president of the Old Dutch Chocolate Company. When I asked him to what he owed his success he replied, "My bride." We asked to meet her but was told she was visiting her parents at Keltner, Missouri.

From Harlem we flew to Algeria landing amidst the gunfire at dawn. While viewing the hilly scenery suddenly to our amazement Anna Barr and Richard Younge came running past, hand in hand. A little man came up and explained their actions as they rushed by without speaking. It seems that France has declared a cease-fire just long enough for them to fight a duel. The duel was understandable after recalling their mutual dislike during high school days at Chadwick. To meet our schedule we had to leave immediately for Paris to make plane connections and were unable to remain and see the outcome of the duel.

From Paris we flew to New York and reported in at the home office. On my desk was a telegram from Janice Hawkins and Doris Lilly inviting us to a double wedding which was to take place at Oldfield, Missouri. The grooms were Kenny Hanks and Doug Morgan. After attending the wedding we drove down to Pine Ridge where we found Don Morgan and his pretty wife, Sue. Pine Ridge has really grown since that government defense plant was built there. Don and Sue raise coon dogs and I understand that they do quite well.

We drove back to Oldfield where we found Regina Hughes living the life of a hermit since her broken romance with Robert Eutsler. As we walked up the walk we saw a hand flash past the window and grab a long shot gun. Following a loud report we hastily departed. We called the sheriff, who took Regina to Nevada, and our last report was that she is still there.

On to Springfield and a visit with Jane Jenkins, R.N. at the Springfield Baptist hospital. She is the former Jane Willis. Jane, during her coffee break, informed us that Linda Jones had not married Jerry Rozell. Instead she is competing with him for the finest herd of Angus cattle this side of the White River Bridge.

After leaving the hospital we went back to our motel. There we met Doyle Pettit and Georgia Fuller his fiancée. Doyle is a famous magician and Georgia is his lovely blonde assistant.

We took a bus to Ft. Leonard Wood where we interviewed Gary Bilyeu and Leo Rysted. They joined up on the buddy plan and decided to make the service their career.

The concluding names on our list are Connie Braden and Ben Gardner. Connie married Jerry Hursh. He is the owner and operator of the Hursh Lumber Company of Chadwick. Ben is running for his second term in the Missouri state senate. His future plans include running for governor in 1980.

In concluding I would like to say that this assignment has been my pleasure. Although my journey has ended and the fates of my classmates have been both surprising and gratifying I think I can summarize the events that have taken place by saying that we the graduating class of 1964 realize that the years we spent at Chadwick High School helped mold us into what we now are.
