DEDICATION

The 1980-81 Yearbook Staff would like to dedicate this annual to our Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Carolyn Blacksher. Mrs. Blacksher has been at Chadwick for three years. And in that time she has advanced the quality of the Home Economics department, including forming our Home Economics Club.

We are very thankful to have Mrs. Blacksher as a faculty member and a friend, too. We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for all the time and consideration you have given us all. BEST OF LUCK IN THE FUTURE.

Dreams

The future holds nothing
But dreams
Of the past
And the dreams of the future
Hold nothing
That lasts
Hold onto your sorrow
And dreams
Of the past
Will turn into future
And future
Comes fast.

Standing now in a blind daydream
Memories short, we play silent grown-up games now.

The Branches of Life

I've lost my skill for finding joy!
Joy in everything I see
And now I feel a quiet comfort
Settling over me.

The time has come for me to grow up
Into the person I want to be
I have to make up my mind now
Will I be able to climb that tree?

There will be branches trying to stop me
But I know I can see it through I'll find that limb will hold me
Don't care what I have to do!

To live your life in your own way
To reach for the goals you have set for yourself...
To be the you that you want to be that is success.
