DEAR SANTA LETTERS

BY Sheila Gardner & Lori Applegate

The Yearbook Staff had a Dear Santa contest this month between grades 7-12. The letter was to be 75 words or less. The winners were Lisa Johnson, Randy Dollarhide, Rick Maggard, Theresa Cummings, Shannon Workman, and Michele Hampton. They received candy canes for the letters and the grand prize winner received a large candy cane. The grand prize letter was written by Randy Dollarhide.

Dear Santa:

I would like a pair of long handled underwear red and white striped and if you could find it in your heart, you could bring me a pair of house shoes to go with my long handled underwear. Please don't forget my Superman or Wonder Woman Under-roos. Also please use the front door, you leave a mess!

Shannon Workman

Dear Santa Claus:

I've been very good and I was wondering if you could send me a red "73" Chevy truck plus $2000 so I can add things to it. I need it for the weekends. If you refuse I'll have to resort to criminal activities.

Chele

P.S. Could you put a gift certificate for unlimited gasoline in my stocking and charge it to Rick?

Dear Santa:

I've been a bad girl. But you know that it was for a good cause. I would have a wonderful Christmas if you would give me a Koala Bear and a Giraffe. I know its a lot to ask, but it would make me very happy. I'll even leave you some cookies and milk. You'll know my house by the purple smoke coming from my chimney. Your the Best Santa!

Love,
T. Lynn

Dear Santa:

All I want this year for Christmas is clothes, make-up, and a $90,000 Ferrari Car that a 12½ year old can drive. That shouldn't be to much to ask for so I better get it or else!

Sincerely,
Lisa Johnson

Dear Santa:

If you could see fit I would like to have a new Remington 30-06 automatic for Christmas. Also 5 boxes of shells and if you could, open deer season back up just for a few days, please.

Rick Maggard

P.S. Tie Rudolph up behind my house.

Dear Santa:

I want a little red wagon with black dot's, a dog named SPIKO, and I hope you are not mad at me for putting a frog in my sisters' shirt. Also, fill my stocking with some one-hundred dollar bills. (That's not too much!)

Best boy in the world,
Randy Dollarhide

FBLA/FHA NEWS by Theresa Cummings

The FBLA/FHA Club is headed for an exciting year.

The club has received their new T-Shirts ordered from Quardo Manufacturing in Ozark, MO. The T-shirts have the members names on the back and the officer titles on the arm. The T-shirts are gray and red with two bears on the front; one dressed in a business suit representing the FBLA and one dressed in an apron representing the FHA.

Wednesday December 3 the club attended a mock wedding at the Union Church in Chadwick. The wedding was held by the Home Ec. Family Relations Class. They all did a terrific job.

On Monday December 15 the club went to nursing homes in Ozark. The members sang Christmas carols, read poems, and handed bags of cookies out to the elderly. The club and everyone involved seemed to enjoy the activity.

December 15-19 the FBLA/FHA Club sponsored a Canned Food Drive. All Chadwick students and faculty were invited to bring as many canned goods as possible to school. The canned goods were stacked to form a pyramid. All canned goods were taken to Ozark Friday, December 19 by the club officers. A picture of the officers and canned goods collected was taken by the Ozark Headliner. All food collected will be distributed by the Christian County Neighborhood Center to needy families in the Christian County area.

To end the Christmas month the club had a Christmas party December 22 at the school. Refreshments were served along with game playing and a gift exchange.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM
by Michael Coffey

The Christmas Program was held December 19, 1986 it involved the high school Chorus Class which sang a version of Happy Holiday, and White Christmas. They also sang some songs that are not usually heard such as Christmas Time is Here, Wondrous Star, The Jesus Gift, and a traditional American Carol, Jesus, Jesus Rest Your Head. They worked hard on these songs I think the girls did very well.

The Jr. High Chorus did Traditional songs such as The Twelve Days of Christmas, and Go Tell It! They also did new songs like Christmas Round, and What Can I Give To The Holiday Child?

The Elementary children sang good old favorites like Rudolph, Jingle Bells, Silent Night, and Away In A Manger. They also sang new songs such as This Little Light Of Mine, Will You Go?, and This Is My Story. They closed their section of the program with "We Wish You A Merry Christmas".

The French Class taught by Crystal McFarland sang Jingle Bells, and Rudolph in French.

The Art Specialties Class silk screened the program cover and made the reindeer hats for the children. They also designed the background for the program. We hope you enjoyed this years Christmas Program I know I did!!

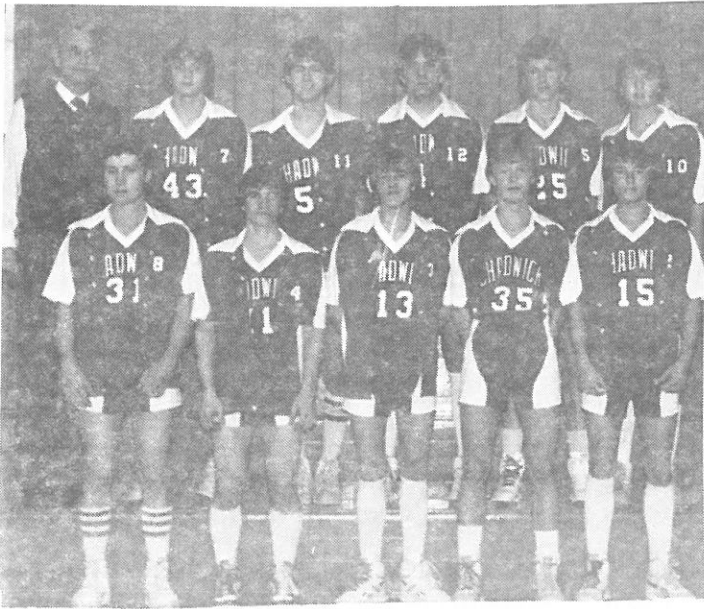

NEAT THINGS FOR CHRISTMAS
By Carla Maggard

If you could have anything you wanted for Christmas what would it be? A 1986 Z28, a jammin stereo, a new wardrobe. These are just a few of the things I thought would make a great Christmas present. We asked some of the CHS students what they want for Christmas. Sheila Gardner a little gray ford ranger so she can drive it through Sonic. Lori Applegate said she wants a certain guy driving a blue chevy truck. (We hope she gets him). Steve Thomas said that Santa has always brought him what he wanted before, so this year he would like a good-lookin-blonde. Tonya Smith, Missy DeWitt, Laura Peak, want a stereo and a life time supply of pizza. Becki Freese wants everybody to forget that its her birthday and to give her $100.00 each. Micky Walker wants a gun rack. Michele Hampton wants a black headed man with blue eyes. Mrs. Harris would like to see nine lovely smiles at all the Basketball games cheering for the Cardinals. Mary Jo Burkhart's gift is to have all her family together, good-health and World Peace. Brian Nelson would like to have a Ranger Bass Boat. David Walker would like to have a set of crager mag wheels for his 55 chevy. Molly Hurd would like to have 5'11" blond headed blue eyed guy that drives a cherry red 1986 mustang. April Hale wants a red truck. Kathy Gideon wants a lamborghini. Julie Mitchell wants a 5'6" brown headed blue eyed man. Ellen Mitchell wants a guy that is tall, dark and handsome with Blue eyes and very rich. These are just a few of the presents that CHS students are expecting on Christmas morning. Let's hope they get them.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

THIRD GRADE CHRISTMAS By Janelle Jones

Christmas will soon be upon us and it seems like everyone is getting ready early. I'm sure everyone has been thinking about what they want and what they're going to do for Christmas. We went and talked to the third graders and asked them about Christmas.

Jeremiah Cummings, Joey Wiles, Johnny Coffey, and Curtis Anderson all decided that they want Santa to bring them a radio. Jeremiah celebrates Christmas because it's Jesus' birthday. Joey says that on Christmas he's going to his friend's house. Johnny and Curtis are both going to their grandma's for Christmas.

Casey Walker celebrates Christmas because it's fun and it's special to her because it's Jesus' birthday. She wants a skateboard, radio, and some skates.

Tessa Nalley and Melissa Lowry both want a Magic Moves Barbie. Melissa's Christmas is special because it's when families get together to celebrate because of Jesus' birthday and to give presents. Tessa thinks Christmas is fun because she likes getting presents and she plans on going to her grandma's.

Andrea Wilson would like a pretty blue coat. She thinks Christmas is fun to celebrate and she's going to her grandma's too.

Chris Anderson wants a motorcycle and he likes Christmas "because it's his favorite holiday including his birthday."

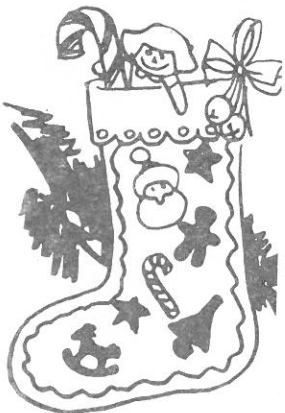

Josh Gilbert would like a bike, (hear that Santa!), and he plans on eating at Christmas. He celebrates Christmas because it's Jesus' birthday and it's special to him because he always gets what he wants!

Julie Clark plans on wrapping presents and spending time with her family on Christmas. She wants a Teddy Ruxpin bear for Christmas.

Tonya Putman and Kesha Mitchell both want a Corn Silk Cabbage Patch Kid. Tonya celebrates Christmas because of little boy Jesus. Kesha likes Christmas because it's Jesus' birthday and she gets to open presents at home and at her grandma's.

Jamie Spinner wants a Pound Purry for Christmas and she's going to stay home on Christmas. It's special to her because on Christmas Jesus was born.

Daniel Dotson and Tyson Blevins must really like toys because that's what they want for Christmas. Daniel celebrates Christmas because it's Jesus' birthday. Daniel and Tyson both celebrate because they get more toys.

Brett Stevens really has a list. He wants a bicycle, soccer ball, and camouflage jeans. He plans on staying home and opening presents for Christmas.

Daphne Walker wants a Baby Talk doll. If your looking for Daphne on Christmas Eve, you'll probably find her at home waiting for Santa to come.

Dustin Smith would like a motorcycle and you can tell he's going to be careful because he also wants a helmet. He likes Christmas because it's Jesus' birthday and he gets to go to his grandma's.

Chandra Glink also wants a bike for Christmas and she plans on staying home with her aunt.

GRADES AT CHS! by Dawn Walker

The first semester will soon be coming to an end. Some students cannot wait to get their report cards and others dread even the thought of it. But I'm sure most of us here at CHS make pretty good grades! So, just to be curious, we asked Mr. Mease how he thought CHS students were doing this year, compared to the grades of students in previous years. Mr. Mease commented that first quarter grades were not quite as good this year, but he expects second quarter grades to be better. We also asked Mr. Mease what he thought was most important about student schoolwork and his response was "to attend class regularly"! I wonder if that was meant to be a hint???

We asked CHS students a few questions about their grades. Listed below are the responses.

Here are a few of the students that said "yes" grades are important to them and their reasons why...

Ray Tennison: Yes, because he wants to go to the Air Force Academy when he gets out of school. Bradley Stevens: Yes, so he can get a job or go on to college. Jennifer Stevens also would like to go to college after high school. Kim Finney said Yes, because she wants to have a good education. Crystal McFarland: Yes, because her grades show her how well she is learning. Theresa Cummings: Yes, because they reflect on you and your self image throughout life. Shannon says Yes, because if he didn't make good grades he couldn't play basketball! Sherry Herd makes good grades because she wants to get out of school. Anita Maggard: Yes, because she says she has always had bad grades. Becky Peak, Jessi Miller, and Darrelene Smallwood all agree that making good grades is very important because they all want to live healthy teenage lives!!!! David Walker says "Yes, grades are important" but he doesn't know why! Michele Hampton and Julie Mitchell both agree that grades are not important!!!

We also asked a few students what privilege they were most afraid of losing if they didn't make good grades. Here are the responses: Bradley Stevens said not being able to use the phone or go out. Sherry Herd and Julie Mitchell both said losing the privilege of going out on weekends. Crystal McFarland is afraid of losing her car. Theresa Cummings had a very original response. She said "The privilege of getting rewarded by others when you make good grades, and you seem to be looked up to." Becky Peak, Shannon Workman, Darrelene Smallwood, Jessi Miller, Jennifer Stevens, and Kim Finney all agree that the privilege they are most afraid of losing is playing sports.

Most CHS students responded that the people who influenced their attitudes most about making good grades were parents, grandparents, sisters, brothers, teachers or friends.

Even though all students at CHS do not always make strait A's on their report cards, we can work to improve ourselves by attending school and doing the best job we can do!!!

MOCK WEDDING
by Karen Walker

A mock wedding was held December 3 at the Chadwick Union Church during third hour. The Family Relations/Marriage class held the wedding to better understand marriage and the way of life. The Bride was Rhonda Ridenour and the Groom was Bobby Weagley. The bride wore a white wedding gown and a veil. The groom wore a gray tuxedo. The Bridesmaids were Molly Hurd and Karen Walker. Following the bridesmaids was the Maid of Honor, Vickie Stence, all girls wore light pink formals. The Ring Bearer was Kip Townsend and the flower girl, Amanda Maggard. The ring bearer wore a gray tuxedo and the flower girl wore a blue formal. The best man of the groom was Tim Pendergrass and the ushers were Mike Massey and Ray Tennison. They all wore gray tuxedos. Dawn Walker was present at the guest book in a pink dress and the Preacher was Mike Coffey and he wore a blue suit. The Mother and Father of the bride was Michele Hampton and Matt Maggard. The mother wore a blue dress and the father wore a blue tuxedo. The songs "Just you and I" and "Cherish" were sung at the wedding by Anita Maggard, Becky Peak, Missy Herd and Sherry Herd, they all wore dresses with pastel colors. The music was played by the music teacher, Mrs. Detherow. The church was decorated with pink streamers and candles for the candle ceremony. After repeating the vows and exchanging the rings the candle ceremony took place. At the conclusion of the ceremony the Bride and Groom kissed and then marched out. Following the Bride and Groom was the Maid of Honor, Best Man, Bridesmaids, Ushers Flower Girl and Ring Bearer. All FHA-FBLA Members were invited to attend the wedding and after the wedding a reception was held outside the Home-ec room, cake, nuts, and punch were served by Becky Peak, Missy Herd, Sherry Herd and Anita Maggard. The cake was decorated with white frosting and pink rosebuds. The Marriage class baked the wedding cake and decorated it, it was heart-shaped with two layers, they also prepared the punch.
