HAPPY THANKSGIVING

by Amy Grove and Jessi Miller

Did you know school is not in session Thursday and Friday November 24 and 25? What's the occasion? Thanksgiving Day of course! What will most CHS students, faculty, and staff be doing Thanksgiving Day?

Becky Peak, Melissa Herd, and Julie Coffey plan on visiting grandparents. Jennifer Stevens plans on visiting an aunt in Fordland and Ray Tennison will visit aunt's in Arkansas and Oklahoma. Traci Melton and Tina Nalley plan on going out for dinner. Kim Finney, Karen Cummings, Tonya Smith, and Karen Walker plan on staying home and celebrating.

Did you know that Thanksgiving Day is a special time set aside to give thanks for blessings received during the year? Don't forget to set aside a few minutes Thursday to think about all the good things that have happened to you during the past year.

What will Thanksgiving Day be like for most people? Probably most of us will sleep late, and when we finally get out of bed, we'll catch the ending of the Thanksgiving Day parade. The rest of the day the only thing on TV will be football (Which is good if you like football).

I guess most people would say that the best part of the day would be the food! The traditional Thanksgiving dinner would consist of turkey and dressing, cranberry sauce, hot rolls, green beans, sweet potatoes or mashed potatoes, and pumpkin pie with a big scoop of whip cream on the top! If you don't eat all these delicious foods for dinner you can have them for leftovers! By the end of the day everyone is full and weighs ten pounds more!!

Thanksgiving Day is a great holiday and besides that, you get two days off from school!! So Happy Thanksgiving!!

CHILD'S GRACE

by Frances Frost

I give thanks for the lovely-colored year,
For the marigold sun and slanting silver rain,
For feathery snow across the hemlock hills,
For the sailing moon twelve times grown full again.
I give thanks for my family; Father, Mother,
And all the happy things we do together;
For understanding, laughter, and for love
Strong and warm in any kind of weather.

"Lefties"

by Jennifer Stevens

"Lefties", "Southpaws", some people are treated as if they are not well in the mind because they are left-handed. Parents and teachers sometimes try to make left-handed children write with and use their right hand. This can cause problems like nervousness, and stammering. Left-handedness sometimes seems to cause mirror writing (writing from right to left) and reversals in reading, as in reading "was" for "saw". Psychologists have shown beyond a doubt that some people are naturally left-handed and that it is much more difficult for them to do any skillful act with the right rather than the left hand.

If you are left-handed, you probably have special writing problems. Your desk may have been planned for right-handers and may be awkward for you. If you learned to place your paper in a position that is normal for right-handers, you probably write with your wrist twisted into a hook above the writing and your hand may be smearing the ink before it dries. Be sure your fingers are at least an inch from the end so that you can see what you are writing. Keep the parts of your hand that touch the paper well below the writing to avoid smudging the wet ink. You may find it easier to write straight up and down or even to slant a bit backward.

Aside from what has been said about problems, everyone that was surveyed say they don't seem to have any problems with being left-handed.

Most kids didn't mind being left-handed and being different from everyone else, except for Amanda Maggard and Jeremy Gilbert. Amanda doesn't like to be left-handed because everybody calls her "lefty". Jeremy likes being left-handed because his uncle told him left-handed people are smarter. He really likes being different from the other kids.

For all you left-handed people here are some famous "lefties":

Harry Anderson (Night Court)

Brooke Shields

Jack the Ripper was thought to be

Michael Stars (Dynasty)

Jackie Harry (227)

Remember that the left-side of the brain controls the right-handed people and the right-side controls us lefties, we are the only ones in our right minds.

BOOK FAIR

by Jeri Stanley

Book fair time is here once again! December 2 - December 9; We will be making plans for the exact days you can buy. Be watching the bulletin boards and for posters.

The Great American Book Fair Company is supplying the books which will be for sale. Put this event on your Christmas shopping calendar--almost everyone on our list would enjoy a new book.

SEVENTH GRADE FIELD TRIP

by Jeri Stanley

On Friday, November 4, Mrs. Stanley and the 7th grade class went on a field trip to attend the Literature Festival of the Ozarks at Drury College.

The class listened to three guest authors. The first, Lou Kassem, wrote Middle School Blues among other books. She told us that the most important thing about writing was "to tell a whopping-good story." Then she told us a story about getting peanut-butter stuck in one's mouth!

Our second author, David Gafaldi, wrote One Sure Thing and several magazine stories. He has a new book coming out soon.

Dean Hughes, our last author of the morning tried to convince us that being an author was really HARD WORK! He did this by showing us ski trips, horseback riding, travel scenes, and other slides of his family and himself having some good times. (I think he convinced a few people that maybe, writing would be a GOOD JOB!)

When we finished at Drury, we went to SMSU to tour the College Library. Mrs. McCroskey gave us a quick walk-through tour of the building, and the various departments, and then she introduced us to the card catalog on computer. Later the class had time to use the computers on their own to locate information.

When our hour at SMSU was up, Mr. Richardson picked us up and we headed for Ozark and McDonalds for a LATE lunch. We were certainly ready for lunch! We finished lunch, ran a little energy off and headed back to Chadwick--a little tired, but with an interesting day behind us.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

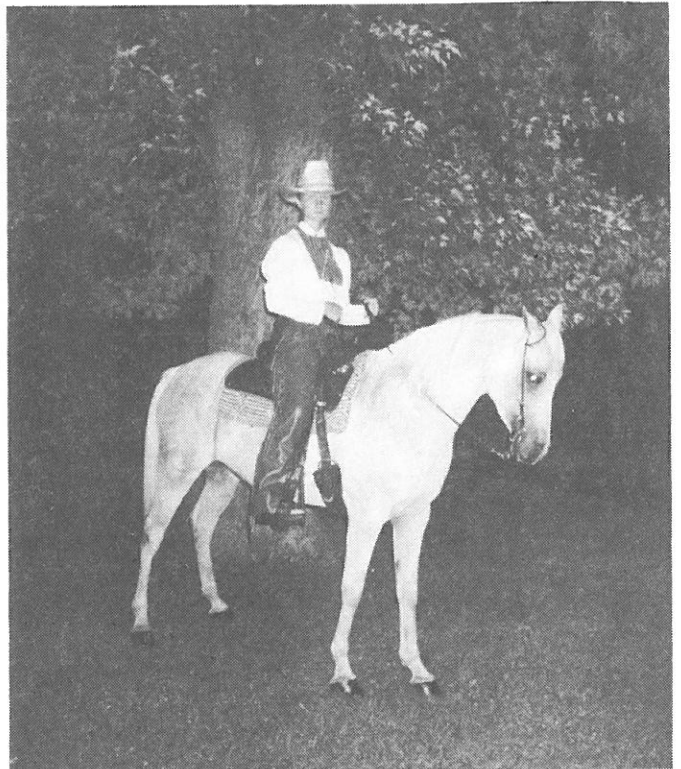

by Karen Walker

Susan Bray is a Senior this year. She has a part time job at Famous Fashions in Ozark. The biggest part of her job is being a salesperson. Susan said she likes working with the public and she really likes the money. She has worked at Famous Fashions four months now and she commented that "Going to school and working 30-35 hours a week gets tiresome because she doesn't get much sleep. Sometimes her job interferes with her school work, since she works after school. Susan said the pay is above minimum wage and she spends most of her money on gas and what's left on clothes. Susan feels like this is a good job and a good career to get into. Her future plans are to get some type of degree and get married. Good Luck Susan!

Susan Bray attends school at Chadwick, COE Class at Sparta before going to work at Famous Fashions in Ozark.

Becki Freese, a Sophomore, enjoys horseback riding and showing horses. She started riding horses when she was 3-years-old and has been riding ever since. Becki started showing horses when she was 10. She has shown horses for 5 or 6 years. Becki has a 4-year-old Paint and two 5-year-old Arabians, which she has shown at Republic, Ozark, Rogersville, Mount Vernon, Ozark Empire Fairgrounds, Willard, Highlandville, and Forsyth. She has also shown horses for other people and got paid for it. The awards Becki has won include 23 in first place, 14 in second place, 15 in third place, 6 in fourth place, 10 in fifth place, 5 in sixth place, 3 Highpoints and 1 Reserve Highpoint. Becki's comment was "Horseback riding and showing horses is a lot of work and on Friday and Saturday nights it doesn't give you time to do anything else!"

HUNTERS

by Amy Grove and Jessi Miller

Why did some CHS students get up early (4:30 or 5:00 AM!) and brave the cold weather in the woods this weekend? Because it's gun season! We asked some of the mighty hunters at CHS to tell us their hunting stories. Some of them were hard to believe but all of the hunters swore up and down that they were true! Here are some of them.

Missy Herd- Missy claims Saturday morning she went outside to her car and there it was--a mighty 12 point buck! She ran back in the house and got her gun. She came back outside and shot the big buck. Just as it fell to the ground, another buck appeared. This one was even bigger than the one before! Missy started to take aim but decided not to shoot it because she didn't want Kurtis to feel bad.

Mike Massey- Mike says it was cold and dark. He wondered if he would get him this morning. The old buck came up and Mike shot. The 12 pointer ran and dropped. Mike jumped out of his tree and ran to the buck, gutted him (Mike claims he weighed 350 lbs. after it was gutted) and hung him in a tree with his 14 and 15 pointers!

Becky Peak- Becky says she got the biggest deer on record but she doesn't want to give us all of the details.

Our best story came from Marty Walker. We decided to write it word for word.

"THE HUNT"

I got in the woods, in the dark of course, and couldn't find my tree. I finally did and sat in it freezing until dawn. I heard a rustle in the leaves. I looked behind me and there it was. It was huge. It was probably one of the biggest that I had ever seen. I raised my gun slowly and pulled the trigger. The beast dropped. I jumped out of the tree with my knife in my teeth. When I hit the ground, it jumped back up and ran off over the hill. I chased it. I tracked blood for 3 miles. Down in the bottom of a very steep hill, I found the dead varmit. I'll tell you, I like to never drug that squirrel out. Ha! Had you going didn't I?

ART NEWS

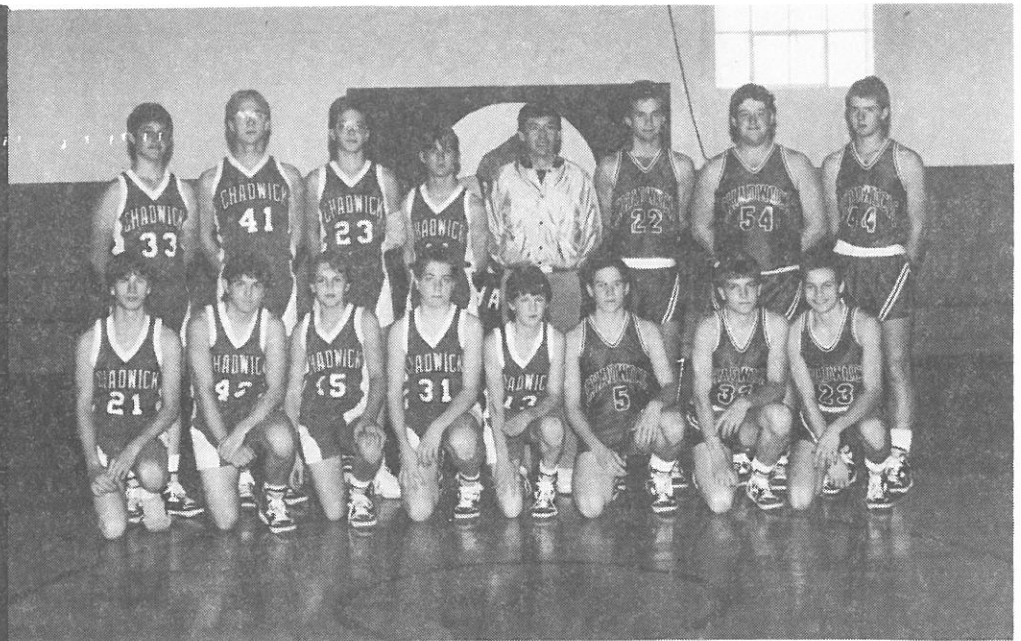

by Cathy Snider

Most of the elementary classes are making Native American Art, or Indian Art. The first grade worked with pottery, they made little bowls called pinch pots. The second grade is making jewelry by stringing beads they made from clay and paper and adding feathers. The third grade is doing some stitchery, they're making a thunderbird design using yarn on burlap. The fourth grade studied Indian picture writing and painted Indian symbols on mock leather which they made from brown paper. The fifth grade is making a weaving, they will hang some natural materials like feathers and shells from their weavings.

The eighth grade finished their wild and colorful sunglasses. -- They are on display in the Art room and they look fantastic!!!!

BOYS BASKETBALL

by Tonya Smith

That's right, you guessed it. The Chadwick Boys Basketball Team! The first game was played against Hurley on the 17th of November.

Coach Jester comments that "The Varsity team only has seven players so it is important that everyone plays and works as hard as possible". Coach Jester thinks that everybody will be surprised with the team if they play up to their ability. "I sure hope the guys want to play as hard as last years team", Coach Jester added. The one thing Mr. Jester really wants is to win the conference again.

I asked some of the Varsity players about the team and Kurtis Daugherty said that they will have a good team. Mike Massey said that they will have to work hard and stay with it. Marty Walker said they were going to WHOP it on them. (I hope).

GOOD LUCK CARDINALS!!!

LADY CARDINALS

by Coach Long

The Lady Cardinals Basketball Team is few in number again this year, but the young team and I are excited about this years season. We hope we will be able to compete this season.

This year we have one senior Becky Peak who will be a big threat this year on the boards. We also have only one junior Amy Grove who last year led the team and area in scoring, averaging 22 points a game, We hope she continues this outstanding feat. We also have two sophomores, Tina Weter, who is a new player this year and Laura Peak who showed us some great moves last year. To complete the team we have three freshmen, Lisa Phillips, Tina Nalley, and Julie Coffey who we expect to help us out a lot this year in many areas.

Even though we are a young team the Lady Cardinals seem to be enthusiastic about this season. Mostly we are out to have fun and to enjoy the game.

JUNIOR HIGH SPORTS

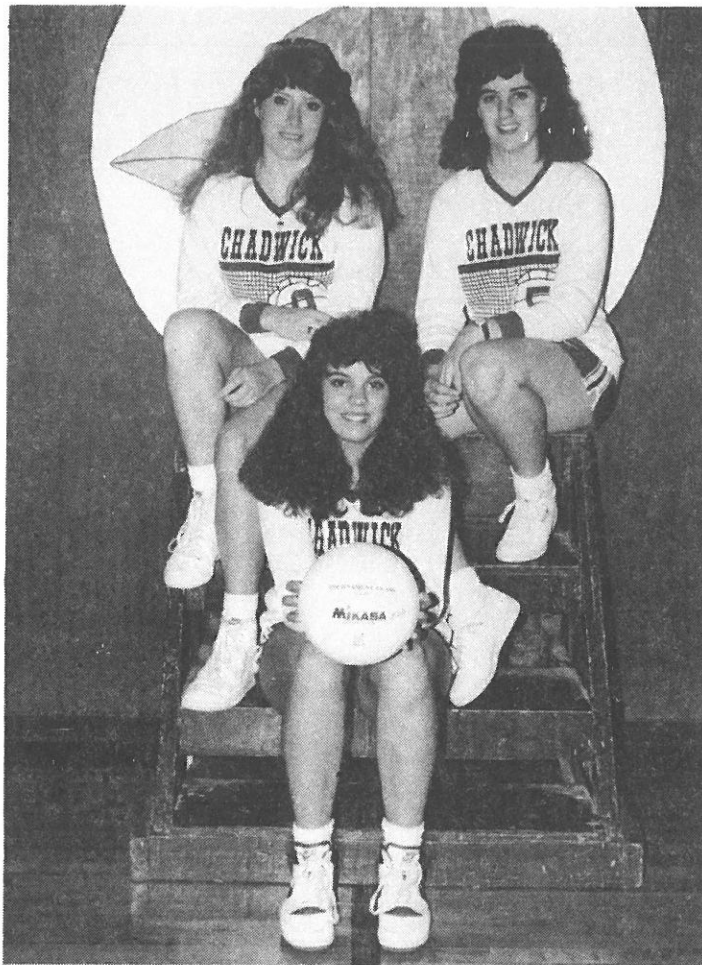

by Tonya Smith

The Jr. High played hard at the Bradleyville Tournament. They came away with Second Place. They had victories over Mark Twain, and Lutie, but lost the last game against Taneyville.

Coach Jester said that in the last game they could have played better.

Congratulations to the Jr. High Cheerleaders for earning the tournament's Spirit Award.

CONGRATULATIONS JR. HIGH!

Becky Peak and Amy Grove were chosen All Conference Volleyball First team players. Laura Peak was chosen for the second team. Congratulations to those players and the entire Chadwick team.

SPIRIT WEEK

by Tonya Smith

Did you find the week November 14-18 a little strange? Did you see students with strange colored hair and teenagers with the appearance of a 4 year old? Chadwick students dressed up for spirit week. Monday-Punk Day, Tuesday - Little Kids Day, Wednesday - Hat and Tie Day, Thursday - Hick Day and Friday - Spirit Day. Many students participated and had great costumes.

On Friday a pep assembly was held to get people in the spirit for our first game. That night a dance was held and everybody had a great time.

The cheerleaders thank everybody for dressing up.
