Happy

Thanksgiving

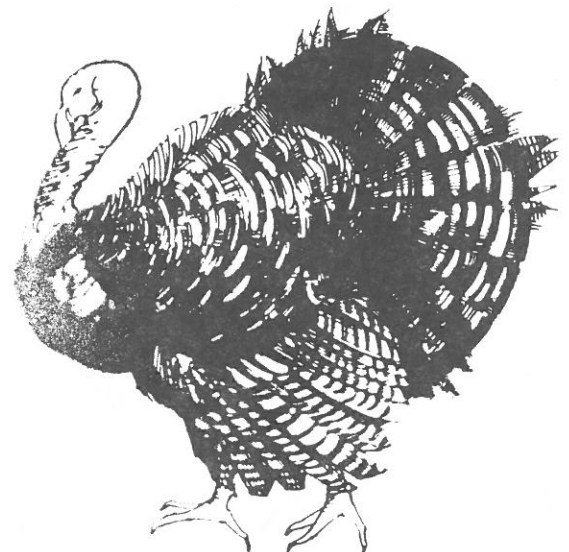

Autumn

by Kim Finney

Thanksgiving is usually a time that is celebrated by being with family and friends and being thankful for the things that we have. People think of many different things when it comes to Thanksgiving. Here are some things that come to the minds of students and faculty at CHS: Teri Osborn thinks about turkey and about the pilgrims and indians. Stefanie Weter and Kathy Applegate both think about getting out of school for two days. Jennifer Stevens thinks about going to her grandma's house to eat dinner with her family. Christy Grider, Chasity Mitchell, and Tonya Smith all think about FOOD. Raymond Stevens thinks about wild turkeys. Karen Cummings thinks about spending the day with her family and eating all day. Mrs. Horton thinks of quiet time with her family and good food. Julie Coffey thinks about cooking the turkey and all the other stuff for dinner. Many people think of different things, and celebrate in different ways. We hope you have a wonderful holiday. HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

A low mist hangs over the frost-burnt browning lawn
curls like smoke
around tree tops
bright streaks
of the eastern sky
spotlight leaves
of autumn gold veined mirrors
of reflected light
and everywhere
the smoky wood-fire smell of autumn.

Grade cards were given out Nov. 3, 1989. The Senior Class seemed to have the most students with good grades. Eight of the fifteen Seniors made the Honor Roll. The Sophomores were next with six out of sixteen making the Honor Roll. The second quarter should be better as many students missed making the Honor Roll by a C in only one class.

"You will awaken feeling refreshed and will sign my report card without even looking at it."

PTA NEWS

by Amy Grove

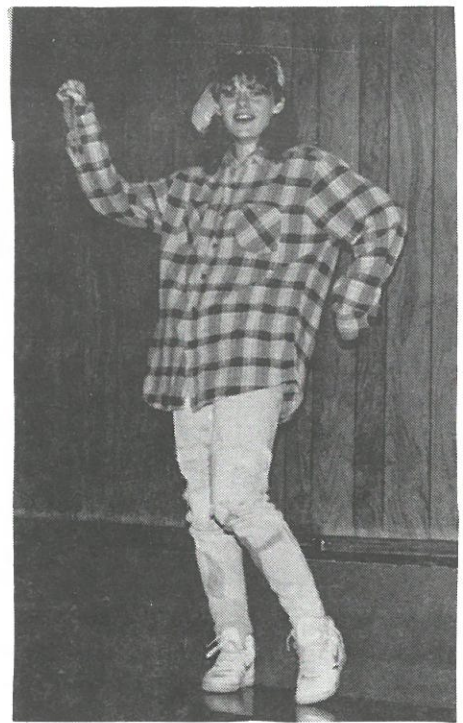

The PTA last met on Monday, October 23. Right now they are working on improving the PA system. The PTA provided the helium for the balloons for the "BOOK IT" fair held Wednesday, November 15. They also held a membership drive. The class who got the most parents involved won a free popcorn movie party. The third grade won. The next PTA meeting will be held November 27 at 7:00 p.m. in the art room.

Melissa Loomis, Misty Fintel, and Mrs. Treva Henderson dress up for Hippie Day during Spirit Week.

by Kim Finney

1989-90 Spirit Week started out on Friday night November 10 with a Spirit Dance sponsored by the Cheerleaders. Spirit Week included Little Kids Day, 50's Day, Hippie Day, Slob Day, and School Colors Day. A pep rally was held seventh hour on Friday to get the school spirit up for the Cardinal's game against Bradleyville.

Tina Weter dresses up for slob day during Spirit Week.

Teachers Recognition

by Jessi Miller

Theodora Horton has taught at Chadwick for 9 years. She graduated from Northeast Missouri State University. Mrs. Horton likes to teach at CHS because of the students and faculty. She teaches English, Speech and Drama and General Business. She heads the drama club and is the Senior Sponsor. Mrs. Horton is married to Edward Horton and they have 4 children- Mark, Paul, Laura and Lesha. Mrs. Horton lives in Bradleyville.

by Jessi Miller

Steve Long, history teacher at Chadwick for the past 9 years, graduated from Southwest Missouri State University in Springfield. Mr. Long is Senior class sponsor, Career Ladder coordinator, and is a member of the school's Professional Developmental Committee. He has been married to Coach Arleigh Long for 4 years and they currently reside in Sparta.

Pumpkin Babies

by Jessi Miller

For a week the Eighth grade learned what it was like to have to take care of a baby. Mrs. Morrill had the class carry pumpkins. Each pumpkin had a certain weight, what the baby weighed at birth. Rueben Parker was the proud father of twins. The class painted faces on the babies and dressed them and some babies even wore diapers! After a week, on Halloween, the babies were turned back in to Mrs. Morrill where they transformed back into pumpkins and were cooked and made into pumpkin pies for the faculty.

Teddy Bear Day

by Teri Osborn

On November 8, 1989, the Kindergarteners brought their teddy bears to school for Teddy Bear Day.

Each of the children named three things about their bear in class, for language skills. And then had a Bear Parade by showing their bear to the class.

Mrs. Stanley, the Librarian, read several books about bears to them for their library time, and had several bear books set out for them to check out and take home.

Drama Club

by Teri Osborn

On November 10, 1989, The Drama Club had their meeting to choose one of the two plays they are having this year, the play is called "When The Nerds Bit BeverlyHills". Written by Cynthia Mercati.

It is about a family of Vampires from Transylvannia who ran a summer camp but are being run out of town by a bunch of preppie college students.

The production is to be held sometime in December.

Geography Week

Ms. (Trivia) Henderson sponsored National Geography Week November 14-17.

There were 10 questions posted around the school each day. At the end of the week a winner was to be chosen by the most correct answers turned in.

Lady Cards Volleyball

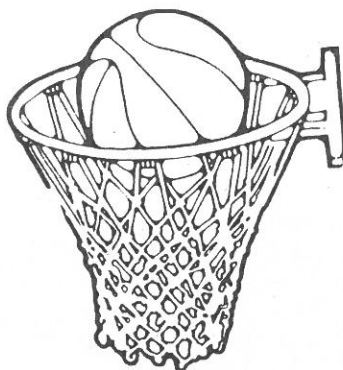

by Jennifer Stevens

The Varsity volleyball girls won the MARK TWAIN CONFERENCE championship by beating Norwood.

The Lady Cards were really excited about winning, Amy Grove stated that she thought that they played team ball and it was the best game they had played all year.

There will be a banner ordered for the gym with the varsity ladies names on it. The varsity team included Amy Grove, Kim Finney, Jessi Miller, Laura Peak, Kathy Huff, Karen Cummings, Stefanie Weter, Tonya Smith, Tina Nalley.

CONGRATULATIONS !!!

Lady Cards Basketball

by Jennifer Stevens

The 1989-90 Girls Basketball season began with a home game against Fordland.

The team has grown in the last few years and there will be three returning starters, Amy Grove, Kathy Huff, and Christy Grider to add experience to the team.

The entire team consists of Amy Grove, Karen Cummings, Laura Peak, Lisa Phillips, Laura Nelson, Christy Grider, Kathy Huff, Julie Coffey, Tina Nalley, and Misty Fintel.

New basketball uniforms have been purchased and hopefully will be arriving soon.

Art News

Calendars are finished and on sale now. The Graphic/Printmaking class has worked hard and have made our best calendar yet. See them in the Art room.

The Art I classes are making table settings, food, silverware, dishes, glasses, even candles and candlesticks out of clay. They are having fun making mexican dinners, pizza, romantic dinners for two and fast foods.

Eighth grade artists have finished making masks out of papier mache', they have printed these masks very brightly and added some interesting texture. They are on display in the art room.

The Elementary celebrates Library week by making books in art. Fifth and Six grades learned how to make pop-up books.

National Library Week

by Mrs. Stanley

Chadwick Elementary celebrated National Young Reader's Day last Wed., November 15 with a full day of activities. Mike Massey, Ray Tennison, Mickey Walker, Raymond Stevens, Marty Walker, and Travis Richardson--all special basketball players--read to the students at 9:30 in the morning and got things started. Thanks Guys!

At 10:30, a noted group of adults, read to the students. These included: a parent, Mrs. Plaster; a grandparent, Mrs. Walker; our school "leader", Mr. Ellsworth; those two very necessary people--our cooks--Wilma and Barbara; and three VIP's--Mrs. Morrill, Mrs. Harris, and Mrs. Horton. Thanks special people!

After lunch the varsity cheerleaders took their turns reading. Thanks to Tonya Smith, Laura Nelson, Kathy Applegate, Marsha Ross, Lisa Phillips, Kim Finney, and Jessi Miller. The cheerleaders also led the students in a few READING cheers. You are appreciated.

Mr. Chuck Rousseau and the Chadwick PTA sponsored the balloon release. Also, a donation from the supplier of the helium, Forsyth R.V., helped that event. Teri Osborn and Brandy Stence helped tie the balloons and other gopher jobs. Donna Walker, Mrs. Snider-Gearing and several of her 4th hour class helped attach the notes to the balloons. Donna Walker spent most of the day in the library helping make the day a success. Last, but not least, the support of the faculty at Chadwick helped make the day a success. Thanks all!

An assembly was held to announce the winners of the "BOOK IT" program and special speaker Mike Peters came to read The Elephants Child by Rudyard Kipling. He was very encouraging that the kids should keep reading everyday.

Winners of prizes were: KG - Clarence Mitchell, 1st - Josh Allen, 2nd - Michael Fintel, 3rd - Amanda Walker, 4th - Iona Parker, 5th - Carrie Loomis, and 6th - Daniel Dotson.

The winner of the "Represent Your Favorite Book, Story, or Character" contest was 3rd grade with their representations of Charlotte's Web. Second place was a tie between 2nd grade and 5th grade. The grand prize winner was sixth grader, Candy Plaster, for having read 15 books since October 1. This was the most books read by any one student. Congratulations to all the students and keep reading.

Iona Parker, 4th grade takes her reading seriously.

The balloon release was a great success!

Needs Workshop

The NEED Training Workshop was held at the Reeds Springs Elementary on October 21, 1989. Some of the schools involved were; Thornfield, Galena, Glendale, Reedsprings, Seymour and Chadwick.

After registering, participants could see the fun and games in Energy Conversion Demonstrations or take a ride on the Energy Carousel. Participants met fellow delegates by playing Energy Bingo.

The welcome was presented by Mary Ann Broomfield, Michelle Hoover, and Treva Henderson, along with the principal, Mr. Darwin Strohm and the guest speaker, State Representative Doyle Childers of the 132 District.

Treva Henderson entertained us while explaining the five steps of effective project, GOAPE.

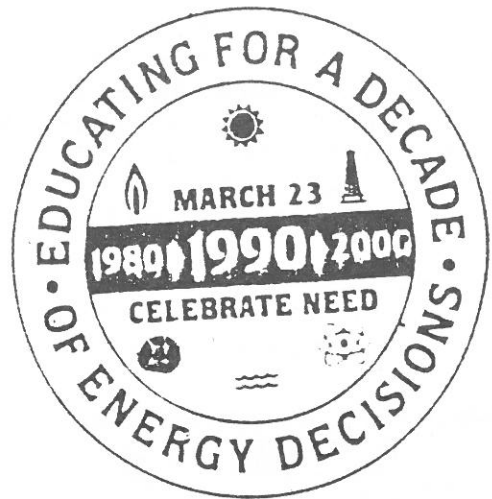

Participants learned energy chants and energy facts for 10 renewable and nonrenewable energy sources. Participants were divided into energy groups by discovering what energy source label was on their back.

Judges choose "The Fusiers" singing "Mr. Nuclear Man." Sung to the tune of Mr. Sandman, Christy Humphery and Tessa Nalley were members of the winning Rock Energy Performance.

Other activities included a panel discussion on solid waste control and recycling.

The finale was the Energy Carnival where participants tested the knowledge gained through the activities of the day. CHS students celebrated the "best" energy carousel with a pizza party on the way home.

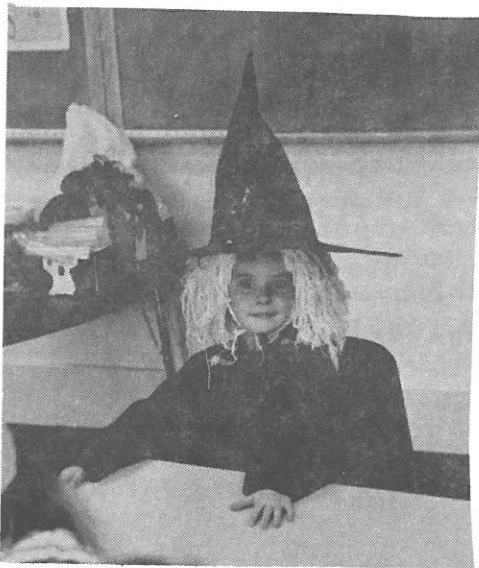

Mrs. Henderson commented, "I was very proud of the good work and good attitudes displayed by the Chadwick students. They took leadership roles in most all of the activities of the day."

Tiffany Peirce shined herself up for the schools Halloween Parade.

We caught Mrs. Morrill telling Betsy Archer and April Hale of their good fortune.

We caught Amber Butler in the Kindergarten Room just before the party.

We surprised Tiffany Nalley with this picture in front of the Science room.
