I want you to always remember, above everything else you learn, how precious and loved you are in the eyes of God. There is a "God-shaped" vacuum in your heart that nothing but God can ever fill. If He is not filling that place in you, nothing else matters. But keep in mind that there is also a "Brittny-shaped" vacuum in the heart of God. No other person on Earth can fill that place-only you. God not only loves you with an incredible love; he needs you, too. Make that exchange of fulfillment your most cherished life time goal and it will last an eternity!

Lady Cardinals Varsity Volleyball

Standing: Amanda Maggard, Tiffany Peirce, Rintha Goin, Danyel Porter, Tiffany Nalley, and Coach Lockos. Kneeling: Amber Townsley, LeAnna Jones, Candra Jones, Jessi Adams, and Missy Smith.

Leading scorer was Tiffany Pierce. She had 43 points for the season. Other leading scorers were LeAnna Jones-32, Tiffany Nalley-33, and Amanda Maggard-31.

The Lady Cardinals Varsity Volleyball had a rough season. However, the Lady Cardinals finished with a record of 1-5. The team also got 4th place in the Verona Tournament by beating Walnut Grove and Exeter.

When Coach Kyle Lockos was asked to give an overlook of the season his reply was, "the team did all right. We had a great turn out of the parents. We had a lot of support throughout the season."

"It was fun while it lasted," said Jessi Adams.

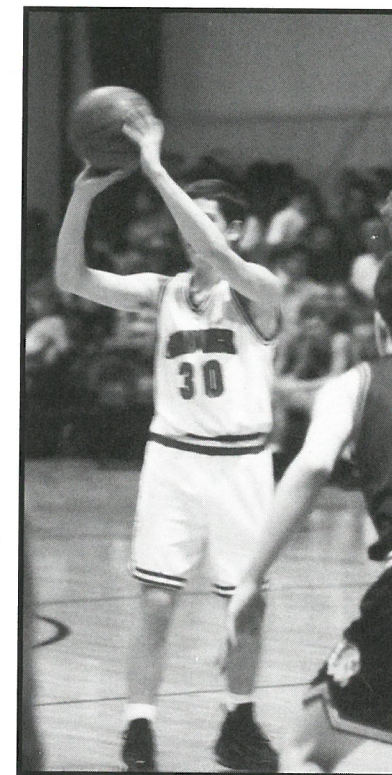

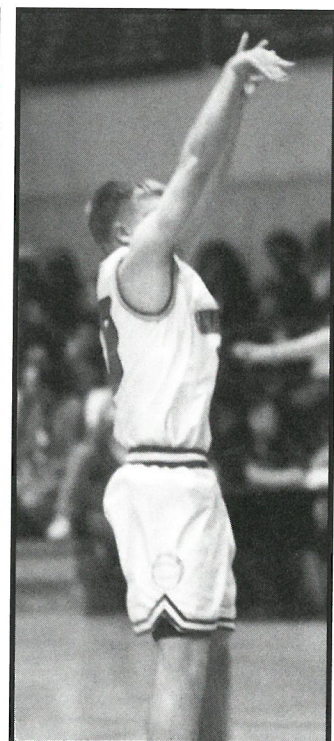

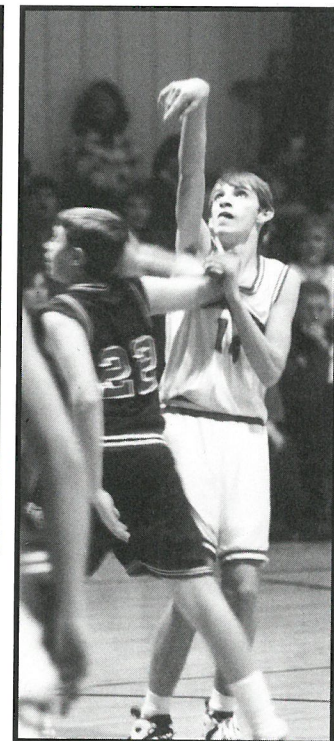

Even though the scoreboards did not show our efforts the 1996 Volleyball team will never forget this season!
