Mike,

You've already made me so proud, and now you begin making more of yourself. Go always with God, in His grace and His love. I may not be able to help you with whatever arises, but I'm always there for you.

Love,
Dad

Dear Jeremy,

You have made us very proud. You are another blessing to us. We wish you the very best life has to offer. Your life is really just beginning. Be sure to let God lead and guide you in whatever you choose to do in life and you will do all right. We Love You.

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

J. V. Basketball 1-2, Varsity Basketball 3-4, History Club 1-2-3-4, Class President 4.

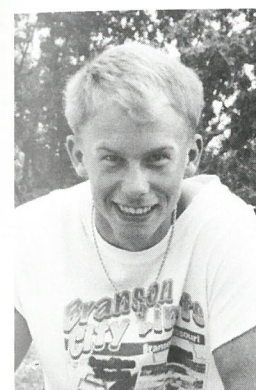

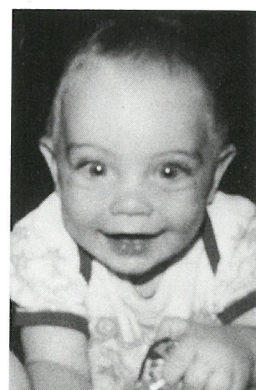

Dear J. W.,

Your Dad and I are so very proud of you. You finally made it through High School. Just kidding!

We love you very much and wish you all the happiness in the world. You are now going into the wide world as a fine young man, and we know you will be a great success as long as you keep your head about you and continue to learn every day.

Be yourself and you can Do and Be anything you want.

Love,
Mom

Dear T. J.,

I wish you all the love and happiness you have brought me the last 18 years. Stick with your goals and dreams and they will come true. I love you best of lot.
Mom

Baseball 3-4, T. J. has participated in a variety of other activities while he attended Ozark School.

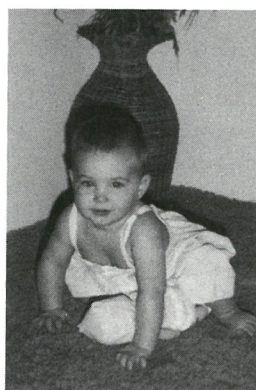

Dear Shana,

Congratulations to my best friend. Words can't express how proud I am of you. I wish we could go back and do it all over again. I've enjoyed every minute of it. I know you'll succeed at whatever you choose to do with your life. Don't settle for less because you deserve the very best life has to offer.

Love,
Mom

Dear Amanda,

Well, we made it through all the ups and downs! Remember, life is one long learning experience. Live and enjoy it. Reach for a dream, if it doesn't work out, don't be afraid to reach again.

Remember "Peanut", Dad and Mom love you always. We are here for you if you need us.

Love us always,
Mom, Dad, and Family

Dear Bob,

You made it Bubba! Twelve long years but you did it. The years have gone fast, and believe me they'll go even faster now. We've had some hard times but you hung in there.

I hope you get the best out of life Son, you deserve it. So stay focused on life, there's a lot of distractions out there. Think positive and stay out of Sparta at night, and you'll go far. I Love you Bob, Thank you for being my son.

Love,
Mom, Sis, & George

Dear Addam,

I am so proud of you and the young man you've grown to be. I've watched you in all the areas of your life--from your determination, and dedication to sports, to your caring and love for the people you care for, and I feel so proud to be your mom. Never give up and enjoy life to the fullest. I'll always be there for you.

Dear Amanda,

Where has time gone? Seems like only yesterday you were starting school, then in an instant you were graduating from 8th grade, now here you are a Senior. We hope you know how proud we are, and have always been of you. Set your goals and keep focused on them, but never lose your sense of humor. Set your mind to it and keep your heart in it, and you can accomplish anything. And never ever forget that we are always here for you, standing beside you to help guide you, and encourage along any path you choose. We love you!

CONGRATULATIONS
GRADUATES!

Senior Wills

I, Mike Cawse, will the legs for hackey to Jeff, and love to everyone.
I, James "FLASH" Barr, will to Jeff the ability to stay out of trouble, and to Jon to be one of the Three Stooges, and will anything else to whomever wants it.

I, Shana Eads, will to my brother Robbie the ability to look adversity in the eye. I will everlasting to my best friend Christine. I will my ability to keep promises to my good friend Eric. I will the best of friendship always and forever, my locker, and the ability to blow my nose embarrassingly, and not to take souvenirs at Dairy Queen to the modestly honest (not) Lacey Ruble. I will my ability to be a snob to Amanda Walker (even though you don't need it). My ability to keep out of cactus bushes to Dustin and my ability to call people back to Chuck. To Randal Moore I will my illustrious wardrobe. To Dale (Matt), I will the ability not to drop people in the middle of the street, and to keep smiling, always look on the bright side.

I, Amanda Fintel, will my ability to my brother to stay out of trouble.
I will my sense of humor and goofiness to all of those who are sour mashes.
I will my power to those who don't have a boyfriend, to keep it that way. Last but not least, I will to all of those below to stay in school.

I, Jeremy Gilbert, will my ability to have a good time in school to my cousin Eric. I will my ability to jump to my cousin Ashley because everyone knows he needs it.

I, T.J. Heavin, will my love to Mom, Tabby, and Joel. I will my ability to ride bulls to Tony Rains. I will my fun and laughter to Mr. Terpening.

I, Tara Herd, will my sister Christy a "perfect" boyfriend from Sparta (Goodluck). To my best bud Amanda, lots of weekends driving backroads and going to Sparta after dark. Last of all to Jeremy and Erick someone to tell jokes to and a weekend at Sparta.

I, Bobby Jackson, will to my little sister April, well, nothing because I don't really claim her. And the best of luck to the upcoming Basketball Teams.

I, Addam Kelly, will my ability to play basketball to David Procell. To Jim I leave my sideburns. To Ashley I leave my speed, you're going to need it. To Mr. Terpening I will a pair of baggy pants. To Candra I will whatever of mine she wants. To the Class of 99 the ability to have fun and enjoy your last year of school.

I, Terrah Little, will my smile to Mr. Shiflett (use it once in a while).
To Ms. Norton an air conditioner and the words "No late work!" To Mrs. Siepker a bottle of Color Endurance, you'll need it after this class! To the class of 1998 keep in touch and may you all get what you want out of life. To the class of 1999 good luck, it goes by too fast. To Danyel, Amanda F., and Sissie more bus trips to Reeds Springs and a life long friendship. To Chris and Dakota, the words "Don't ever give up." I love you both, and will always be there for you. To mom and "dad" I leave a huge debt of gratitude. Thank you for all your love and support, I would have never made it without you.
I love you both. To everyone else, I never said I liked you anyway, (Just kidding) you can have whatever is left.

I, Amanda Maggard, will Tara a life-long friendship, more matching clothes, a big pinch and lots more fun in the future. To my sister Candice and my cousin Jerry Pellham my ability to make it through school and have fun. To Christy my ability not to be so mouthy and my weirdness. To Jeremy and Erick I leave my cruising at Sparta and their own comedy show.

I, Justin Morrison, have something to say before I start. If you're left out don't feel bad. I will to the seniors of 1999 to have as good of a year as we did. I will to all of my senior classmates the ability to be successful in life. To Deena Anderson the ability to do anything she wants. To Mr. Long, a good friend and teacher, the ability to have good luck in teaching. And just one more, to Tracey Case I will for her to have the ability to slide on by things. And since I left people out they can have what is left. See Ya, Chadwick.

I, Sissie Parker, will all my love to my family and close friends. To all of my younger cousins and the 1999 senior class I will my ability to stick it out through school, and if there is anything left then I will it to who ever wants it.

I, Danyel Porter, of sound mind and body will to my little brother Charlie a great senior year and big sister love forever. To my mom I will my ability to deal with things later and enjoy today. I love you. To B.J. Weter I will my ability to get through Elementary school without having to go to the office more than once (Good Luck, it's tough!) To Cherlyn I will a friendship forever. To Sissie I will my ability to keep quiet once in a while (HA! HA!).
To Terrah I will my ability to get my license. To James Maggard I will my ability to graduate with a direction ahead of me. To Tiffany Nalley I will my ability to keep confident no matter what anyone else says. And last but not least to all of my classmates I will good luck and happiness forever.

I, Erick Smith, will Kool-Aid man to Cody Guerin, and will to classes in the future and in the past the ability to remember and know that the class of '98 kicks.

A collage of 22 black and white photographs of students in various school settings. The photos are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some larger and some smaller. The collage is titled '22' in a large, stylized font at the bottom right.

- Top left: A group of students standing outdoors, some wearing athletic gear.
- Top center: A student in a hoodie and a student in a mask (possibly a clown or devil) posing together.
- Top right: A student sitting at a desk, looking down at a book or paper.
- Middle left: A student in a white tank top and a student in a dark shirt standing together.
- Middle center: A student in a dark jersey with the number 13, looking over their shoulder.
- Middle right: A student in a camouflage shirt and a student in a white shirt standing together.
- Bottom left: A student in a white tank top and a student in a dark shirt standing together.
- Bottom right: A student in a white shirt and a student in a dark shirt sitting together.

A grid of 24 black and white student portraits arranged in 4 rows and 6 columns. The last cell in the bottom row is empty. The students are of various ethnicities and are smiling or looking directly at the camera. They are wearing a variety of clothing, including striped shirts, collared shirts, sweaters, and jackets. The background of each portrait is a solid, dark color.
