Dear Cody,

Where has the time gone? I can't believe that our little ice cream faced three year old is all grown up. And what a fine young man you have turned out to be. You have far surpassed anything we ever expected! We still don't know how you got so smart, but you have made us very proud! Know there are many things you want to do, but SLOW DOWN! Life is longer than an eight second ride! Now as you begin your journey though life, follow your heart and don't ever look back, only forward, because the best is yet to come!

We Love You!
Mom, Dad, and Fizz too!

P. S. your Dad says you still have to do what we say! And although it dosen't seem so, Fizz really does like you!

Dear Wendy,

We wish we had the power to stop time, to keep you as when you were our little girl. We remember your little bunny face, and your sweet little hands that were always into everything. Today, many years have gone by, and "Oh Lord," you have grown and changed so much, even the different things that happened everyday, good or bad, we will always remember. You continue to be our pride and joy, and we continue to love you more and more. Even when things have changed, your sweet innocent face is in the midst of our home. Doing things here, there and everywhere, and those sweet little hands into everything, except now its got a new name, Serafin Eelishua Gonzalez.

Love your parents, sisters, and brother, who love you and we will always back you up.

Dear Ginny,

My very beautiful daughter (both inside and out), it has been an honor to be your Mother. These past twelve years of school has been both difficult and glorious. You have finally made it to the top of this mountain though with your head held up high. I am so very proud of you Ginny. Never forget who you are and always follow your inner guide. Not looking at circumstances around you or what others might think and you shall go from mountain top to mountain to or glory to glory. You are a tremendous person Ginny. May you fulfill your highest potential. I may be in the background of your life now but I am still there there cheering you on and praying for you daily.

I Love You,
Mom

Senior Wills

I, Jessi Adams, will the ability not to get caught skipping school to my "little" sister Jennifer. To Ryan, I will the ability to talk his way out of almost anything. Good Luck!!! To Matthew and Stacey, the ability to keep their mouths shut....(Ha, Ha)!! To LeAnna and Wendy, a lifelong friendship. To my parents, lots of love. Hugs and Kisses. I love you both. To John Davidson, I will whatever the future may hold for us.

I, Justin Blacksher, will my basketball ability to Joey. I will my baseball ability to my brother Jason. I will Jared to be calm every once in a while. I will to Deena not to worry about every little thing. I will Brigitte the ability to talk more and Missy a little bit less. I will Charlie my ability to swing a bat. I will Tiffany the ability to be quiet (don't tell her anything). I will all my luck and skill to Coach Sherer and Coach Phillips to find good jobs in life. I will all my love to my father, mother, and stepmother. If anyone else wants a piece of me go ahead and have it.

I, Kim Butler, will my ability to get good grades to my sister Amber. To all of my class, lifelong friendships. To Brigitte Walker, I leave the ability to walk into rooms with glass doors without running into them. And to the class of 2000, I leave the ability to make your senior year the best you can.

I, Jim Fisher, of somewhat sound mind and body will Ashley Gilbert my Chevy 283 engine because he needs one pretty bad for that old coupe. I will Amanda Walker my ability to manage her money and a lifetime supply of love and happiness. To Brian Moesner, I will a big can of refried beans and sour cream, so he can open his own Taco Bell. To Cassie Whight, I will my drivers license because she can't get one of her own. To Charlie Porter, I will a car he can get parts for. I will Cody Guerin a pair of baggy pants and some Airwalks. I will my little brother, Dale, the ability to stay out of trouble. I will Mr. Blaue some Rogaine and Just For Men. To Mr. Terpening, I will my electrical experience for that new intercom system. I will the underclassmen this advice: stay in school, it's worth it! Everyone else can have the rest because I won't need it.

I, Ashley Gilbert, will to Cody Guerin the ability to smash your dad's fingers and be able to live to tell about it. To Jim Fisher, I hope you get your 65 Pontiac G.T.O. To Charlie Porter, I hope you get your Jeep finished. And to my best buddy, Lacey Herd, I will my love and a lifelong friendship.

I, Cody Guerin, will to my little sister, Fizz, the ability to get along with her teachers and get good grades. To Fizz, I also will my basketball number, 10. To Ashley Gilbert, I will the ability to not argue with his dad. I will to Squirrel the ability to stay out of trouble. To Jim Fisher, I will a pair of Wranglers and Justin Boots.

I, LeAnna Jones, will Candra the ability to have fun her last year in school and to shoot the ball when she is open. I will Abby and Lacey one more trip to Warrensburg. I will Wendy and Jessi a lifelong friendship. Keep in touch girls. To Lori, the ability to have confidence in herself. And to the class of 1999- Good Luck in the Future!

I, Brian Moesner, will my ability to stay out of trouble and do well in school to my brother, Brandon. To my parents, I will my love. To Alysia Sisco, I will her whatever because she wanted something. To all my friends, I will everlasting friendship. If anyone else wants anything, let me know, you might get it (but I doubt it).

I, Tiffany Nalley, will to Deena my ability to throw my glove in the dirt. To Brigitte, I leave a bucket of walnuts. To Missy, all of my crazy softball memories (4+3=7). To Cody, my ability not to listen to Charlie and thanks for not being so stuck-up. To Justin, I give you an afgan to keep warm and my Jerry Maguire movie (because he can never be alone). To Cassie Whight, my ability to cry because some guys are worth it. To Cassie Harris, I leave the words, hold on to your dreams and never ever let go. To my best friends, Tessa and Tina, little sister love and a long-lasting friendship forever. To my parents, thanks for believing in me and I won't be working at McDonalds!!

I, Charles (Spanky) Porter, will my attitude to Cassie Whight. To Amanda and Lacey, I will my ability to make it to school on time. To Blacksher, I will more EdgeFests and my ability to play basketball and baseball. To Jim Bernz, I will some milk and the ability to stay on top of a motorcycle. To Matt Fisher, I give my ability to stay out of trouble. To Ashley, I hope you finish your car. To all those who said I wouldn't finish my truck, I Will. To the underclassmen, I hope you make it. To Mom, Dad, Danyel, and Pam, I LOVE YOU GUYS. Whatever is left I am taking with me, because I'll need it.

I, Tony Rains, will my love to my dad, sisters, and mother. I will my ability to play basketball to Jerry Powell. To my sisters, have fun in school and basketball. To Mr. Long, have fun in teaching and everything he does.

I, Wendy Villarreal, will my heart and life to Serafin and our baby boy, Serafin Elishua, whom I love very much. To Dianira, Teresa, and April my ability to do anything you set your mind to. To Jessi and LeAnna, a friendship that will last forever. Last, but not least, I will my parents a big thanks for everything they have done for me.

I, Amanda Walker, will to my brother, Will the ability to act normal. To my sister, Brigitte, I will my ability to get over guys and my ability to stop at stop signs. To Cassie, I leave my ability to get a drivers license. To Jim, my ability to drive a standard and lots of love. To Charlie, my ability not to get hurt at the fair. And to Lacey, I will more good times, and a lifelong friendship.

I, Ginny Watts, will to my sister, Ruth Ann, a good attitude toward life. To all the freshmen, the ability to have a good time in high school, without getting into trouble. To Debbie, the ability to stand up for herself no matter what. To Christina, the ability to better control her mood swings, and last but not least to my mom, all the thanks in the world for all she has done.

I, Cassie Whight, will to my class the best of luck in the future. To Amanda, my ability to sweep a floor and commit to one guy at a time. To Dale, my ability to make the right decisions. To Tiffany, a tube of lipstick, or at least the money to pay for it! To Charlie, a big thanks for ALWAYS being able to make me smile! To Justin, a friendship through it all. And to my parents, Ben, and Beth, all my love!

Mrs. Day

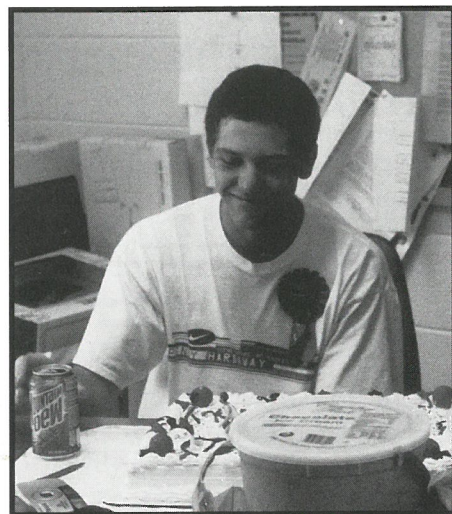

Mrs. Harris

The 1998-1999 school year was the 30th year Mrs. Avaline Harris and Mrs. Marie Day have been employed by the Chadwick School system. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Day are planning on teaching at least one more year.

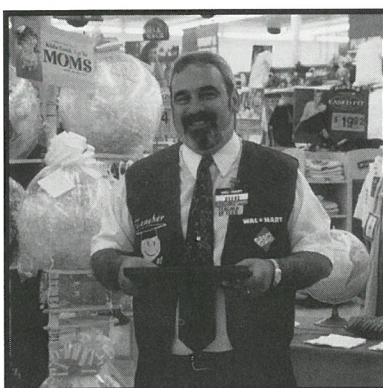

Jim Fisher has served as the yearbook/newspaper editor for the past two years. Without his hard work and effort it would not have been possible for the past yearbooks to be completed.

THE 1998-9 "SHOW-ME"

Cody Guerin was caught off guard by a surprise party on his 18th birthday in Mr. Blaue's room this year.

Mr. Long was selected as teacher of the year by Wal-Mart for his work with History Club this year. Mr. Long has been a teacher at Chadwick for the past 18 years.

The yearbook staff would like to thank Jostens for their assistance in the preparation of this yearbook. Formal photography was provided by Baldwins Photography in Springfield. A special thanks to the administration, faculty, staff, and students for their contributions, cooperation, and support.
