Dear Christopher,

Well we could say we love you very much, but you already know that, and we could say how proud we are of you, but you already know that. So we will tell you we know you will succeed at whatever you decide to do in life, because you are to stubborn no to. So aim high and never look down. Congratulations and thanks for the memories and we look forward to many more.

Dear Teresa,

We thank God for you, and for all the joy you have brought in our lives. The day you were born was one of the happiest day of our lives. You were a God given gift. You are so special in your own special ways. Continue to be the way you are. That young girl that believes in herself, and knows how far she can go in life. We know there are so many dreams you have in life. We encourage you to pursue them. We will always be there for you with our love and support. With that love that has kept us tight through all these years. Our prayer to God is that he will keep you under his mighty wings, and we give angels charge over you for your protection. Always remember God made you the head not the tail. He sat you above and not beneath. You have been blessed not cursed. Baby always remember that you are the righteousness of God. And whatever obstacles life brings God will always be there with you. God Bless you.

BASKETBALL

A collage of 20 black and white photographs of students in various school settings. The photos are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some larger and some smaller. The students are shown in different contexts: some are sitting at desks, some are standing, some are in groups, and some are in individual portraits. The settings appear to be classrooms, hallways, and possibly a gymnasium. The students are of various ages and are dressed in casual school attire. The overall tone is candid and captures everyday school life.
