Dear Megan,

You are my life. In seeing you "a young responsible adult" I see we have done our job in bringing you up. You are a daughter any parent would be proud of. We have brought people into your life to help you along the way. All of these things will help when you need them. Every moment of your life, including this one, is a fresh start. Think ahead about what you want and set goals. Beware of things that don't feel right. Be the person you would want to spend the rest of your life with. Don't forget your family. Good luck "kiddo". We are here for you.

Dear Emilee,

Good Grief--are you grown already? You've come a long way since that first tiny little dirt bike you had. You've always went at each problem the same way you rode your first bike. Full force and never give up and never back down. When you wrecked it you jumped back on and rode it. Now you go over high jumps and fly with it. Always do that throughout life. Don't be afraid, don't back down and if there are blocks in the path you have chosen, find your way over them. We are so very proud of you and love you so much. I wish I could have been there more or said more of the right things, but we're always the perfect parent--after our kids our grown. But be assured, we couldn't be prouder nor could we love you more.

Student Accomplishments

Dear Amanda,

Can't believe how quick the years have passed and now you're going to be out of school. You finally made it, our baby is all grown up. To you it seemed like a long steep road, but the fun has just started. You've now graduated into adulthood and have new problems and challenges to face. But if it was easy and without work the rewards wouldn't mean as much. We are proud of what you have accomplished and what you will accomplish. We want you to remember that you have a family that cares, and we will always be here for you through the good or the bad times. Our love for you will never change. Congratulations!

Love you Always,
Mom & Dad

Dear Chance,

It's been a long, winding road to get here, but you've made it! Life has thrown us several curves these last couple of years, but we've overcome. You'll never know how proud we are of how you have handled your obstacles and that you have always kept your wonderful sense of humor and smile. You've made us cry, you've made us laugh, but most of all you've made us proud. We look forward to what is to come for you in your future, you will be great at whatever you do. One thing we can be sure of, those around you will always be happy and better people with you in their life. We wish you only the best and much happiness always.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Dylan

Dear Callie,

We have watched you grow for the past 18 years from a little baby girl, born in the big state of Texas, to a nice young woman with a heart as big as Texas. Keep God in your heart and be sensitive to those around you and you will make a difference for all eternity.

Love Always,
Mom, Dad, & the girls

Dear Jennifer,

You did it! We are so proud of you. Well, I am certainly going to miss you being at school with me. You are not only my favorite daughter, but my best friend. I hope you will continue your education. You will not regret it. You will be a success at whatever you do because of your personality, attitude, and self-motivation. Your dad and I wish you the very best in all that you do. We all love you very much.

Dear Timothy,

It's a long way from North Carolina coast where you were born to the hills of the Ozarks. You started life in the middle of Hurricane Gloria and will end your school years in the middle of the beautiful hills of Chadwick. We've watched you grow into a man who cares for others and helps them whenever you can, a man who is proud of his school, his church and his faith in God. It's hard to let go of our first baby, but you've proven to us that you are responsible, kind and faithful young man. We love you so very much.
