Class of 2012

Senior Wills

I, Kimberly Bilyeu, will Steve a lifelong friendship, Max another night of getting pulled over, Kaylee Brooke and Bryce the ability to not care about anything, and my family all my love for putting up with me.

I, Lindsey Bilyeu, will Kallie and Dustin my love and the title of "Best Siblings in the Entire World"; Hahn, more laughs and my friendship; Vince, my everlasting friendship and paradise; Kevin, my friendship forever; the pre-school class of 2025 my love and the best of luck throughout their lives.

I, John Blair, will Devin, Cory, and Logan some of my NBA2K skills in hopes that they may one day be able to beat me; my free time to all my close friends in hopes of more hangout time; and the class of 2012 the best in life!

I, Jessica Booher, will Donnie more advice on school work; Abby access to my library; Hahn the ability to will away one thing of mine; Kimberly a few more races to the bottom; and the rest of the class the ability to get along.

I, Robert Cook, will Cory my mad "Showtime" basketball skills; Logan the ability to focus and not zone out in life; Matt, Hailey, and Maddie one more freezing cold, early morning Cross-Country run; Hampy, Petro and Corn Dog one more all night tournament of NBA 2K12. #Stay classy my friends.

I, Kevin Daugherty, will Lindsey my love forever; Nick another fat lip in basketball practice; Hunter, my basketball skills; Brent, a good ol' Ford truck; Clay Bug, a ride in a real truck (a Ford); Cole, some more NBA threes; Bryce, another mudding trip in the "Yoda" and smoking people out in the "Ol' Goat."

I, Stephen Dollarhide, will Kimberly & Kaylee more hangout times; Kimberly more running around town; Brie and Tina more 2nd hour gossip & anger management sessions; Bryce the ability to go mudding without getting stuck & more bonfires & avoiding holes in the ditches; and Becky & Verna my love and more hilarious conversations in Becky's car. To the class of 2012 best of luck!

I, Elizabeth Hahn, will my sister bravery against a softball (don't be afraid to catch it with your face!); to Matthew Wheelock, I will Jessica's ability to stomp; to all of Mr. Walker's English classes, I will my favorite chapter of Things Fall Apart. Finally to the school, I will PEACE.

I, Jamie Hale, will Tina my bow shooting skills; BrieAnna or "Brian" my life because she fed me so many years; I will Kailyn and Hailey one more Chinese fire drill; and my friends, family, and Robert my love and appreciation for being there for me all my life.

I, Jerica Herd, will to all of my friends--Jamie, Kimberly, Tina, Brie, and Steve--and the senior class the best of luck in the real world. I will all of my love to my boyfriend Michael and my family!

I, Tina Mitchell, will my basketball skills to Jamie; more gossip sessions to Stephen; more camping trips at the creek to Brie; Elizabeth another raisin tower; Ellie and Jonathan a life full of love and happiness; a big thank you to my family for supporting me; and to the senior class success in life.

I, Vince Rogers, will Cris and Landen Xboxes; the English 4 class more "wooves"; Lindsey, friendship, happiness, and paradise; Matt, more British comedies; Koltin, wisdom and patience; Tyler, many more guitar jam sessions; and the class of 2023 the best of luck.

I, Brie Smith, will Tina a lifelong friendship; Chase and Coltin the ability to go more than 5 minutes without fighting; Alissa more fun times; all the boys in class and Jamie more food; Blake all my love; my parents my love and thanks for everything; and the class of 2012 good luck!

I, Landen Smith, will to my friends and loved ones thanks for all the help you guys have given me over the years; my sister the ability to have all the fun while in school; John, Cris, Vince, Bryce, Nick, Stephen, and Kim more endless videogame/movie all-nighters.

I, Michael Sutcliffe, will Riley my swag, Cory my mad track skills, Devin one more 2K12 tournament, Maddie my Sperrys and my awesome Mustang, Logan my parking space and another call.

I, Nick Thompson, will Logan the ability to continue my reign of terror upon the school; John, a trip to jail; Landen, more picnic tables to break; Dakota, to go to college and ride the bench for Duke; and Stump, the ability to do what he wants.

back to school!

Students were happy to see each other after a restful summer break!

Hunter gets a lesson from Mr. Lonestar on how to twirl a lasso at the back to school assembly.

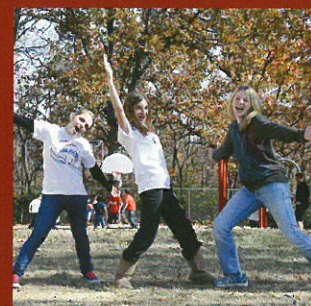

Mr. Butler dances alongside Mr. Lonestar on the first day of school. "I didn't volunteer," he said, "I was volun-told."

Vince picks a tune in the Ag room.

Abigail protects the back row at Bradleyville.

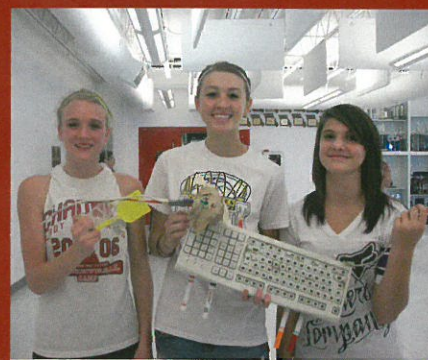

Katie, Kallie, and Faith enjoy the breezy September weather.

Sydney teaches John to skate at the FFA Officer Date Night.

Coach Payne gives the junior high boys a pep talk after a slow start. They finished their season with a record of 11-3.

Chelsie and Mahala are dressed for science. Nice goggles!

Kailyn, Hailey, and Kenzie sabotage a keyboard at the FFA ice cream social.

Dakota fields a fly ball at the Area-12 FFA softball tournament in Sparta.

The junior high girls take a time out during a tense game against Walnut Grove. They finished their season 9-5.

Jamie saves lives at the NHS blood drive on August 29.

Hayden, Jacob, and Brandee learn about chickens, during the annual FFA Food for America Day on September 16.

Trick or treat!

With plenty of action on and off the court, October was a sweet time to be a Cardinal!

FFA attends National Convention in Indianapolis. Secretary Zena Hicks said, "It was a great opportunity to meet other FFA members."

Jessica campaigns for student council president: "The bird is the word."

Landen, Cris, and Vince hang out at Farm Fest.

Chadwick junior high cheerleader Natalie Maggard gets awarded for perfect attendance. GO NATALIE!

Chadwick becomes the first school in the state of Missouri to use propane buses.

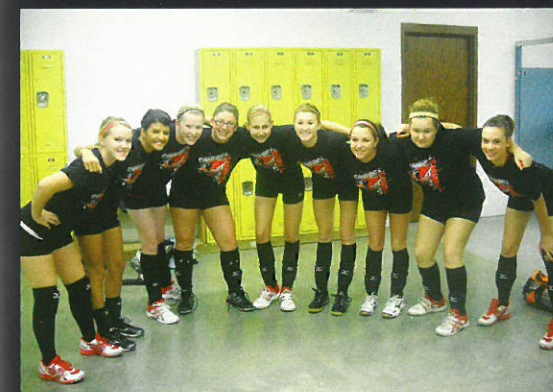

Faith gets ready to show her appreciation to Mr. Ellis at the FFA Labor Auction. I hope he likes pie!

Elizabeth celebrates her birthday a day late at the Spokane College Fair on October 3. Seniors and juniors also toured Missouri State University and OTC's Richwood Valley campus in the afternoon.

Jamie performs a science experiment with dry ice and dish soap. Don't worry this experiment is perfectly safe--as long as you don't get it on your hands.

Varsity volleyball players get ready for Districts at Spokane. They finished their season with a record of 5-9-1.

Hailey Stevens placed 9th at State in cross country. Michael Sutcliffe and Maddie Hursh also qualified.

Taylor Stevens and Lisa Dewitt Trick-or-Treat during the Halloween parade.

Seventh graders show elementary students how they can help save a friend from a life dominated by alcohol and other drugs during a D.A.R.E. assembly.

Good to be king!

A few students were crowned carnival royalty, but nearly everyone found some reason to feel special in November!

Kaylee is amazed by the fossils she finds in the parking lot in her geology class.

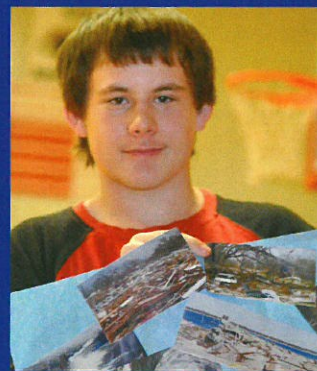

Fifth and sixth graders dig for fossils at the science museum.

Eighth grader Bridget Maggard reads her essay at the Veterans Day assembly.

Janson presents info on tsunamis during Compassion Week.

Taylor, Jacob, and Nicole sing "This Land Is Your Land" along with the rest of the fourth graders at the annual Veterans Day assembly.

Everyone pitches in to get ready for the carnival. Dawson helps set up...um, I mean, sit down.

Fourth graders accept awards for perfect attendance during the first quarter.

Left: Crown bearer Bo Maggard and flower girl Mildred Burkhardt represent the preschool class.

Third graders Jaron VanHouden and Kayla Purdome win carnival.

Below: Sophomore Guy Weagley and Haley House pause for pictures at midcourt. Later, they were crowned high school king and queen.

Zena tries to convince the moderator that, yes, Zena is her real name at the Mark Twain Conference Quiz Bowl Tournament in Niangua.

Vince, Kara, Sydney, and Landon rake a never-ending pile of leaves at the annual FFA Make-a-Difference Day.

Who needs a ladder? Juniors Shelby Tennis and Chelsie Brill take advantage of Mr. Butler's height.

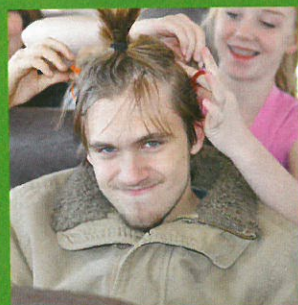

Fifth graders Morgan Sneed, Evan Smith, and Conner Wood have fun at Carnival.

Ready for a break

In December, students were staying busy and looking forward to the winter vacation.

Matt gets a winter makeover on the way to see A Christmas Story at Springfield Little Theatre with the choir.

Brenyn dresses for the cold weather.

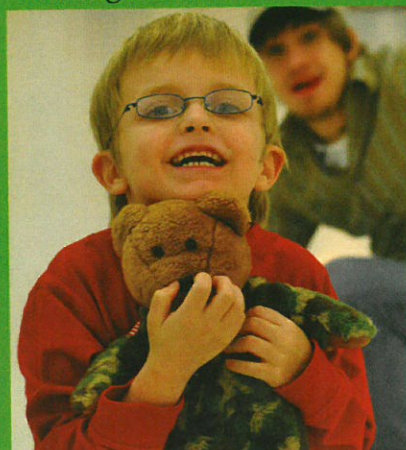

Makenzie helps out at The Least Of These in Nixa during Compassion Week.

Coach Meinders and Jamie chat during the Bakersfield game.

Paitin and Kirsten are already thinking about the holidays!

Clayton dances with his teddy bear to "You've Got a Friend in Me" during the kindergarten half time show.

Lindsey and Brie present a project on homelessness in the Christian County area for a Compassion Week project in Art I.

Corbin plays Rudolph in the school Christmas Program.

Preschool and kindergarten students sing "Away in a Manger" at the school Christmas Program.

Juniors volunteer at a nursing home for Compassion Week. Mahala said, "The most interesting part was playing bingo with the residents."

Jessica Harp cheers at the Chadwick basketball game versus NCA. "Hanging out with all of the cheerleaders is a lot of fun," she said.

There were no snow days in December, but Kelsey Ruhland is prepared for precipitation in her bright yellow rainboots!

Toby grows a winter moustache to help keep warm!

Time to dance!

Students started the new year in style with assemblies, parties, and all kinds of celebrations.

Cheerleader Kallie Bilyeu is happy to show a little school spirit during a game against Lutie.

Crissie Coltrane celebrates the 100th day of school.

Seniors step up the intensity after halftime at homecoming.

Cory has trouble stopping during the FFA ice skating field trip on January 20.

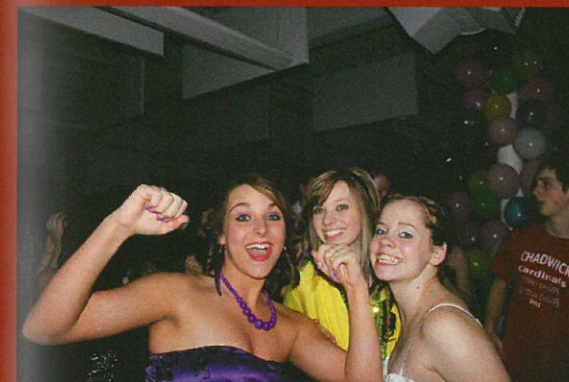

The cheerleaders help to pep up the elementary during the perfect attendance assembly.

Homecoming Princess Riley Massey & Queen Lindsey Bilyeu give a thumbs up after being crowned at the 2012 Homecoming. Riley was escorted by Cory Taylor and Lindsey was escorted by Kevin Daugherty.

Alissa, Jessica, and Brie have a blast dancing at the Homecoming Dance.

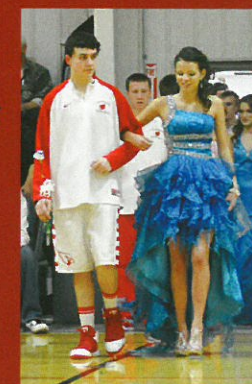

Queen candidate Brie Smith is escorted by Luke Johnson.

Queen candidate Elizabeth Hahn is escorted by Dakota Johnson.

Princess candidate Makenzie Walker is escorted by Logan Woods.

Princess candidate Mahala Overby is escorted by Logan Petro.

Love is in the air

February was all about sharing the love!

Haley Farris and Shelby Weter sport pink hair in support of cancer awareness at the pink out game.

The Lady Cards show off new uniforms for the pink out game.

Logan enjoyed the only two snow days of the year, but she's glad to be back.

Matt gives a toast at an imaginary party for Holden Caufield.

Drew works on a project in--Wait!
Jordan Gilbert comes out of nowhere!

The zoology class looks for wildlife in a cave near the baseball field.

Katie makes a mola from paper in Spanish II. Buen trabajo!

Elizabeth sings "Love Story" by Taylor Swift as a sing-o-gram to raise money for her class on Valentine's Day.

Preschooler Conner Zimmerman celebrates Valentine's Day with balloons and candy during his class party.

Taylor, Rashelle, and Destiny attend a field trip to Fantastic
Caverns on February 2nd.

Kevin Duagherty celebrates basketball senior night with his parents on February 24.

John looks for a quiet place to study...and finds one.

Joseph colors a valentine for his teacher during art class.

Spring break!

Students were excited to get a spring break for the first time in years, but managed to also have fun in the weeks leading up to it.

Tori is amazed by what she finds inside the owl pellets in science.

Natalie and Blake learn how to square dance in music class.

Katie competes at a track meet in Strafford where she throws the shot 25'11".

John dances to celebrate Chadwick placing 2nd in the MTC science fair.

Riley giving a high five after hosting a successful FFA Barnwarming.

Faith plays cards in spanish. Go fish! Oops, I mean vita pesca!

Mahala studies for her history test: "It's gonna be great."

Kaylee and Sydney are having fun carving animals out of soap during Spanish. Sydney is VERY excited!

Chelsie and Jordan enjoy a friendly game of chess at Jefferson City before playing in the state chess tournament.

Tarra and Hope play keep-away with Christopher at recess. Run, Tarra, Run!

Bryson Parker develops two new talents in music class: singing and making silly faces.

Haley tries her hardest to figure out how to complete the Rubik's cube but still can't get it. Try harder!

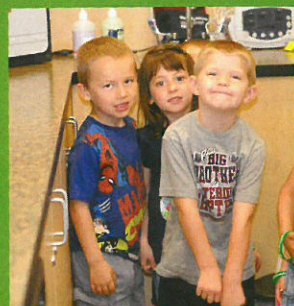

4th graders have an awesome time at the circus with the other elementary students.

making memories!

April is a busy month for students as they prepare for state tests, participate in school activities, and try to make time to play outside!

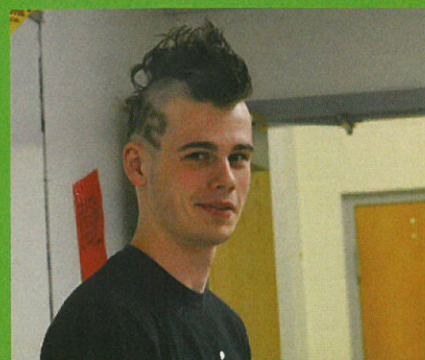

Tristan, Annie, and Clayton get a check up in the C.A.R.E. Mobile.

Luke catches up on his reading in the outdoor classroom.

Firefighter Gretchen and deputy Tristan protect Chadwick School during the day.

Trenton participates in Chadwick's version of the Hunger Games.

Dawson sports a new do in honor of his upcoming graduation.

Haley Farris gets excited about MAP Testing and dresses in the red carpet theme.

Mark is trying to impress his teachers: "Do these glasses make me look smart?"

Makenzie Walker, Jessica Harp, and Alissa Smith are all excited to participate in the art fair with their "Despicable Me" display.

The high school music classes worked for months on the Smurf play. Smurfy job, everybody!

Clayton, Gretchen, and Kallie color eggs for the preschool Easter party.

Stevi learns a new way to hula hoop at an assembly.

Maddie participates in the NHS Induction Ceremony.

Shelby, Jefferey, Faith, Katie, Michael, and Cory all get ready for a track meet in Strafford. Go team!

Almost summer!

At the end of the year, everyone could agree on two things: we had a fun year and we were so glad it was almost over!

Students, Haley Farris and Shelby Weter, have fun at the cardinals game. Go Cards!

Cheerleaders Makenzie and Alissa get awards at the athletic banquet.

Lindsey gets an award for her artwork at the academic ceremony.

Alex watches "Mr. Popper's Penguins" during the MAP movie day. "These penguins are freaking me out!"

Zena nearly passes out at the spring blood drive... and she's laughing about it.

Chadwick students have a great time at Silver Dollar City as a reward for last year's high MAP and EOC scores.

Valedictorian Jessica Booher delivers her speech. Salutatorian Dakota Johnson and former teacher Mrs. Brenda Thorne also addressed the graduates.

The Class of 2012 hams it up for the camera one last time.

Preschool and kindergarten graduates perform a song during their graduation ceremony.

Clayton and Tarra just graduated, and now they're going off to celebrate with cake and punch. Yay!

Salutatorian Dakota Johnson receives his diploma.

How do you feel about moving on to high school? This picture says it all for the middle school graduates.

Chadwick PTO

Recently, in addition to organizing the carnival, the athletic banquet, and teacher appreciation week; donating classroom supplies; and awarding scholarships, the PTO was glad to provide a much-needed portable stage for school events.
