CLASS OF 2018

SENIOR WILLS

I will my volleyball athleticism to Brianna Guerin, my ability to sleep anywhere in the school to Brianna Esline, and the ability to get out of class to Paris Gilbert.

- Mikayla Bushong

I will my sense of humor to Mr. Walker, my positive attitude to Mikayla, my grade point average to Tori, and my intelligence to my little sister. I will my temperament to Brandyn and my love for reading and learning to Lucky. Lastly, I will my optimism to my Mom and my tolerance to my Dad.

- Evan Davis

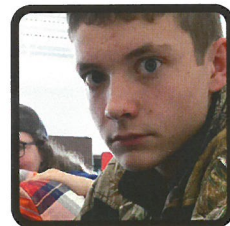

I will Toby the ability to do his homework and actually turn it in. I will Mikayla another day at the nursing home, Evan another lunch period of laughing, and to the both of you a lifetime of friendship. I will Cameron another long bus ride home, and the rest of my class gets to share my quietness because ya'll are way too loud. I will Izzy another hug as we pass in the hallway and my purse. I will Ashley my drawing skills and Courtney Hill my sense of humor. I will Courtney Grimes another talk in the dugout, and the rest of the softball team another great season. I will the upcoming yearbook class a lot of luck because you're gonna need it.

- Victoria Garrison

I will my ability to pass Walker's class to my little brother, Conner. I will my dark sense of humor to Mr. Walker. I will my Fallout hat to Jacob Sallee. I will my Chevy truck to Brandon Wiles, and finally, I will my Fortnite account to my fellow classmate Trenton.

- Cameron Kutchko

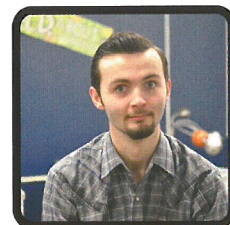

I leave all my stuff to my dog. Just because.

- Jimmy Nelson

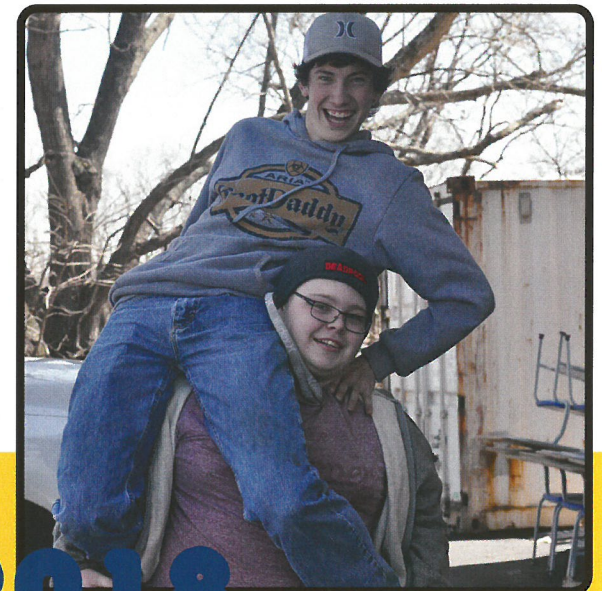

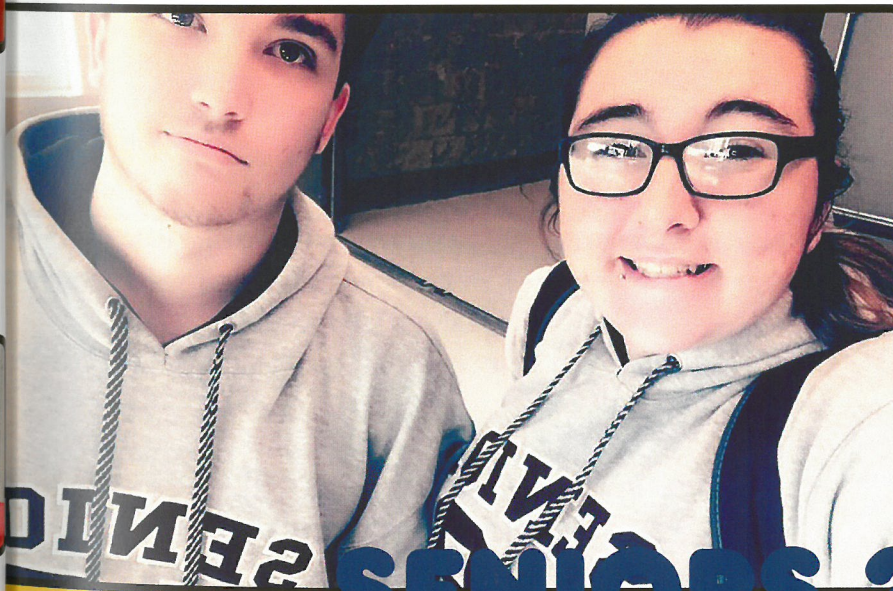

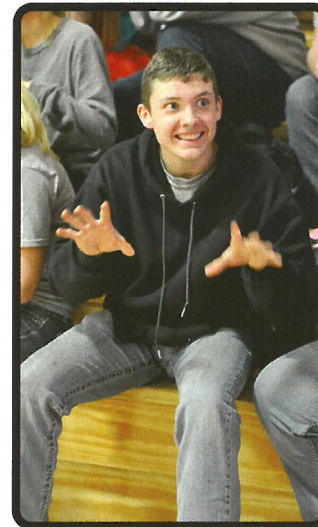

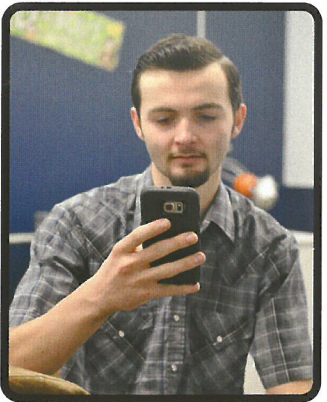

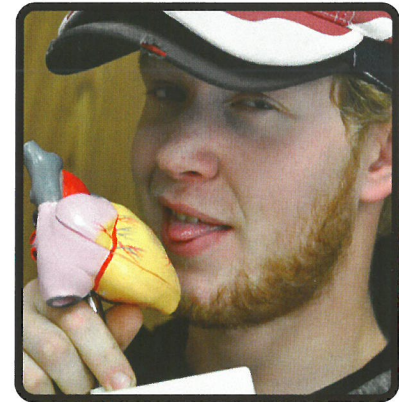

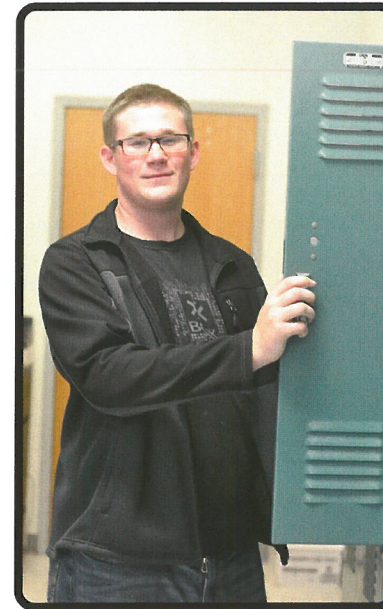

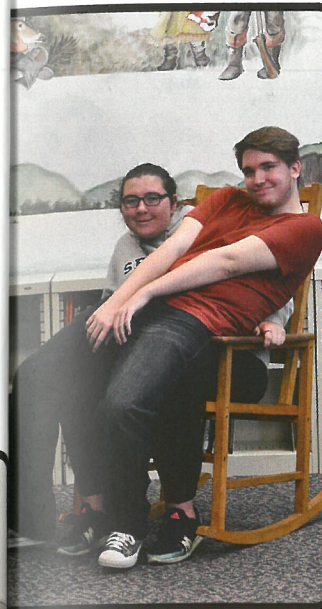

I leave all my bad grades to those who've earned them.

- Tamerage Sanchez

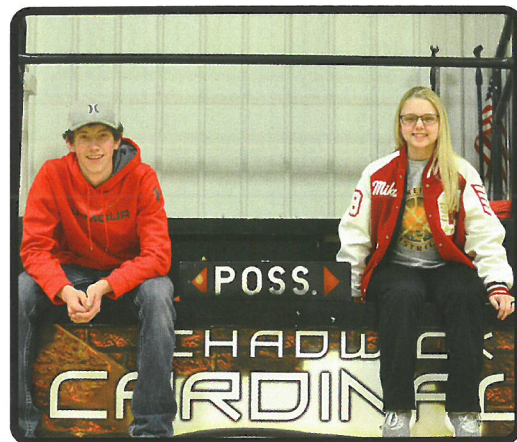

I will Hayden Farris the motivation to do his work because if he does anything like me I'm gonna beat him. I'm serious. Like the Joker asking Batman, "Why so serious?"

- Luke Walker

PRESCHOOL: 4 YEAR OLDS

3 YEAR OLDS

AUGUST/SEPT.

First Day of School

Students were eager to jump on the bus for their first day back to school after summer break.

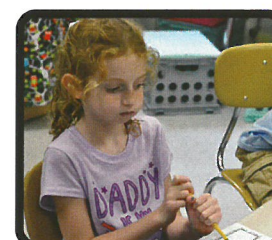

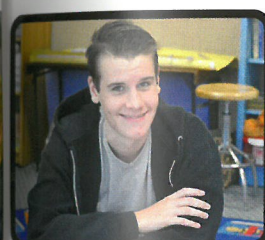

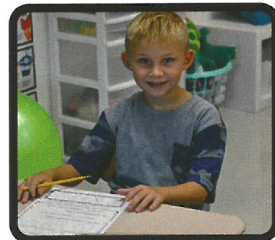

Grandparents Day

Saydee spent some quality time decorating cupcakes with her grandma in the preschool.

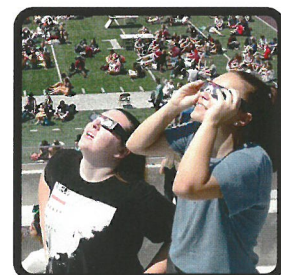

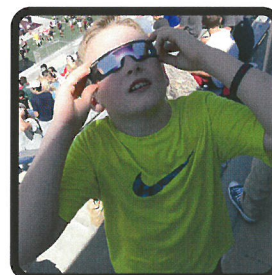

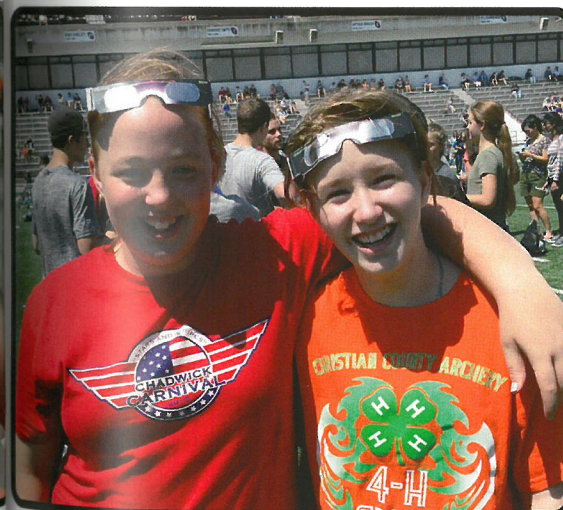

MAP/EOC Field Trip

Students who did well on the state tests went to Silver Dollar City and rode the rides. Mariah and her friends loved floating the Lost River.

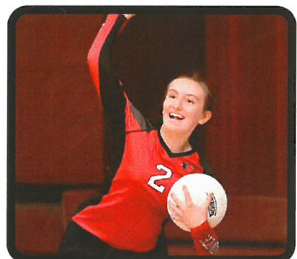

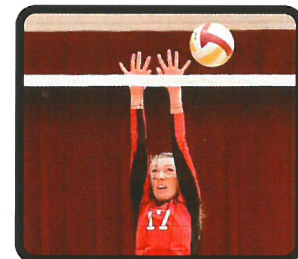

NHS Blood Drive

Hayden hates the sight of blood, but Bri was there to comfort him. Other NHS members helped out too. They greeted donors, passed out snacks, and some of them even donated their own blood.

Solar Eclipse

Students went to MSU to watch the solar eclipse at the football stadium. Students were given special glasses so they could view the event safely.

OCTOBER

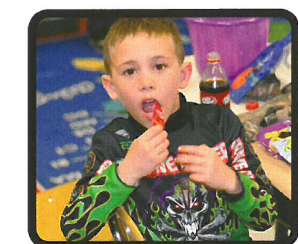

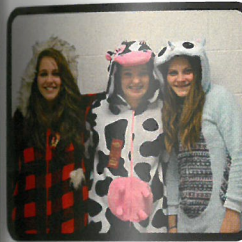

Pumpkin Grammar
Third graders use adjectives to describe a pumpkin's insides.

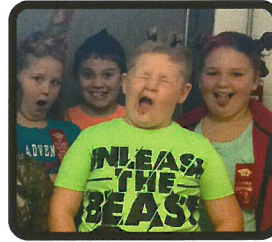

FFA National Convention
The FFA had a blast doing all the activities at National Convention in Indianapolis, including visiting the catacombs.

There's No Place Like Carnival
The PTO carnival had a Wizard of Oz theme. Juniors Nicholas Enns & Tabi Fowler, fifth graders Luke Lorenz and Phynna Echeverria, and first graders Madi Rogers and Ashton Pence were crowned.

Cross Country
The varsity boys cross country team placed first overall as a team for the first time. Junior Evan Smith set the pace for what turned out to be an amazing season for all.

A Spooky Parade
Preschool through fourth grade dressed in costumes and paraded through the school collecting candy before their Halloween parties.

FFA Greenhand Conference
All the freshmen members of the FFA went to the MU research farm in Mount Vernon to listen to speakers and take part in hands-on activities.

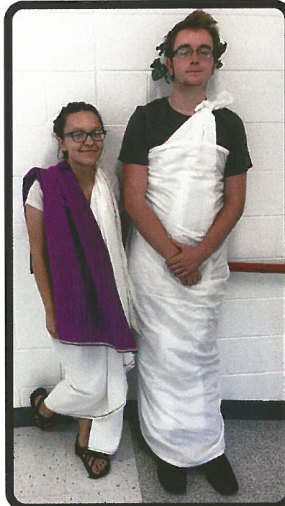

NOVEMBER

Practice Makes Perfect
The boys show off during open gym.

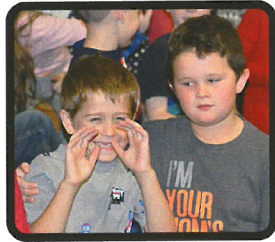

MTC Quiz Bowl Tournament
The academic team placed second in the tournament held at Hurley. Evan led the team with 180 points and Courtney also contributed 60 points.

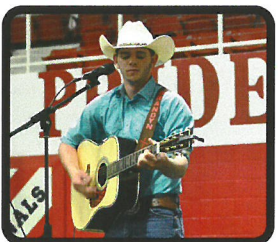

Greeks or Geeks?
Courtney and Hayden dressed up for extra credit in history.

Unleashing the Beast
Evan Smith competed at the state championship race held in Jefferson City. He earned all-state honors, placing 6th overall.

Veterans Day Assembly
Students of all ages showed their appreciation for members of our country's armed forces through stories, essays, music, and song.

Thanksgiving Parties
The elementary classes made pilgrim hats, colored turkeys, wrote what they were thankful for, and ate pumpkin pie with whipped cream.

DECEMBER

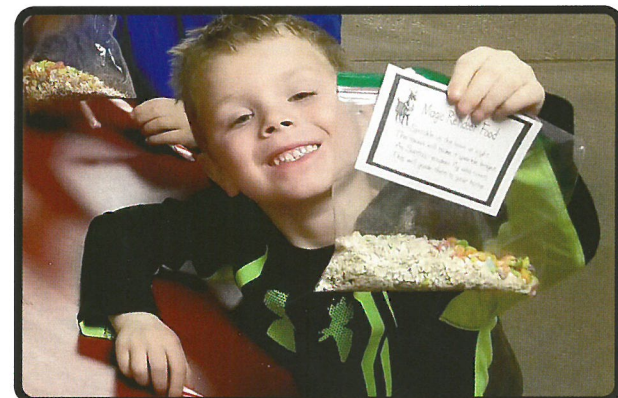

Oh, Christmas Tree!
Students traveled to Marie Day's farm to harvest a tree to decorate for the holiday season.

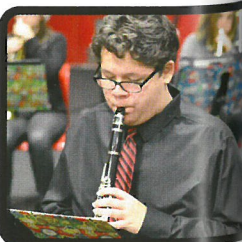

Sitting on Santa's Lap
Santa took time out of his busy schedule to stop at Chadwick School to visit all of the nice boys and girls.

The Most Wonderful Time of the Year
Gift exchanges and sweet treats were the focus of the holiday parties. The preschoolers also made reindeer food to take home for Rudolph and his friends.

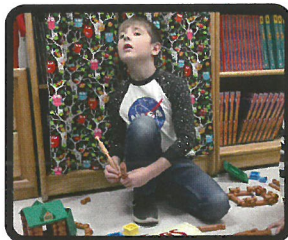

A Charlie Brown Christmas
Students performed a play, sang, and played musical instruments as part of the Christmas program.

Compassion Day
High school students spent the day helping others. They rang bells for the Salvation Army, distributed food, and offered lots of cheerful greetings.

JANUARY

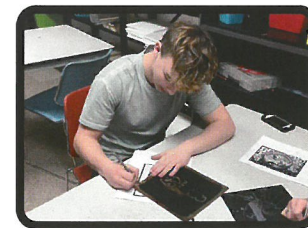

D.A.R.E
Fifth graders showed off what they learned in the D.A.R.E. program at their graduation ceremony.

Students of the Month
Each month the elementary teachers recognized some of their most outstanding students.

Science Group Work
The eighth graders created a model as part of a hands-on group project.

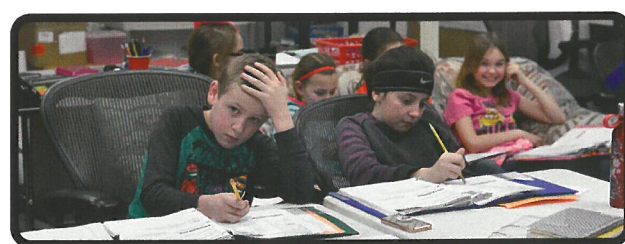

All Kinds of Art
The art classes worked in a variety of mediums to express themselves.

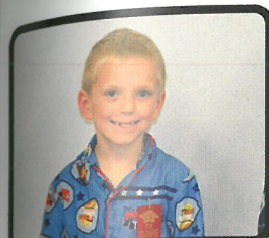

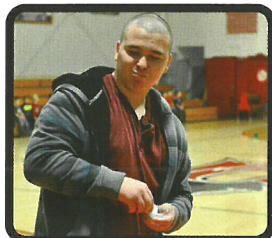

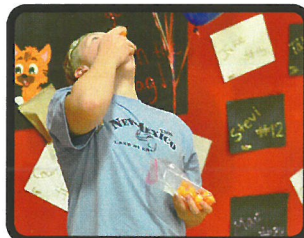

Lady Cardinals
The girls' season started with wins over schools like Sparta, Ava, and Seymour. By the end of January, they had already collected twelve wins on their way to a 16-8 season.

More Winning Seasons
The Chadwick peewee basketball teams showed us that the future of Cardinals basketball is bright.

Pep Rally
The whole student body got pumped up for the big game.

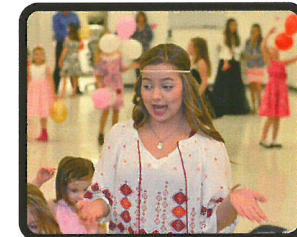

Cardinal Royalty
Sophomore Felicia Ramsey and senior Tori Garrison were crowned princess and queen of the homecoming court.

Dancing the Month Away
February was a great time for dancing, whether the partners were sweethearts, friends, or fathers and daughters.

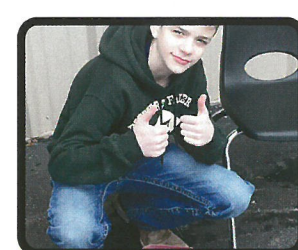

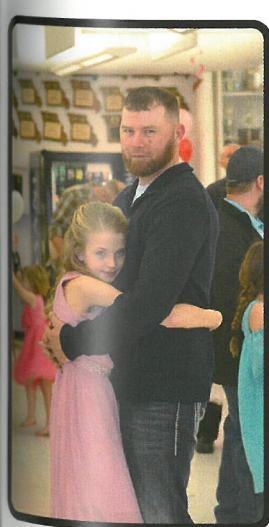

Home Court Advantage
The boys and girls varsity basketball teams were both victorious in the homecoming matchup against Exeter.

Petting Zoo
The FFA hosted its annual petting zoo for the elementary students. Animals included horses, cows, rabbits, chickens, dogs, cats, and more.

Science Olympiad
CHS hosted conference schools in a competition where students could take tests or participate in events ranging from bridge building to egg dropping.

FEBRUARY

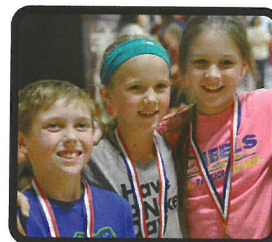

A Swing and a Hit!
The softball girls won their first game against Bradleyville.

The Battle of the Brains
The academic team hosted its second annual tournament for small schools. Everyone got free pizza and tshirt. They placed fourth overall.

Spring Concert
The middle school band played many songs and the second graders performed a colorful song and dance routine.

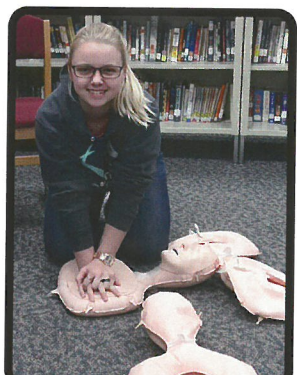

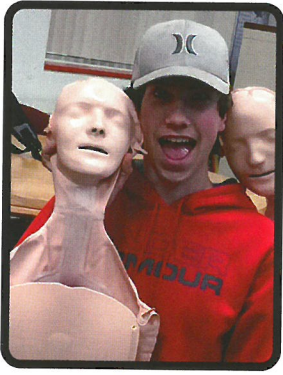

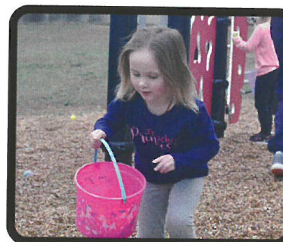

The Chadwick Olympic Games
The pep rally for state testing helped students get excited about doing their best on the test. There were lots of team events that involved activities like running and throwing, and of course, walking with a balloon on your back.

FFA Winners
The dairy cattle team placed third at Pleasant Hope. Also, Jaron and Lauren placed first in speaking in their divisions, and Tori placed first in creed.

Easter Egg Hunt
The high school students hid easter eggs for the preschool students to find.

Senior Stuff
Trenton and Mac learn CPR while Brady shows off his pet squirrel.

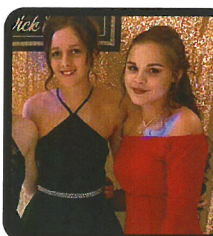

MARCH

District Quiz Bowl
The Academic
Team placed second at districts.

Fair Grove Music Festival
The middle school band received a superior rating at the competition. Emma Gardner, Bianca Mitchell, Katie Sallee, Natalie Parker, & Annie Burkhart also earned 1s.

Prom 2018
Seniors and juniors spent a night in Paris. Mikayla and Tori were crowned co-queens and Evan was crowned prom king.

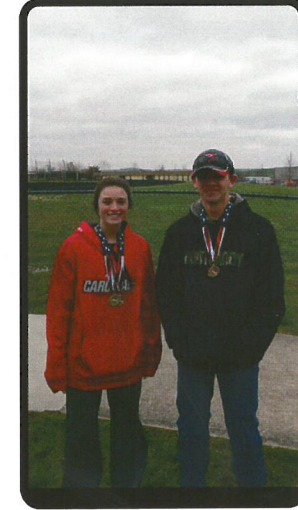

5K
Some runners in the annual 5k race were out to beat their personal times. Others were out to beat their friends! But everyone had a good time.

Class of 2018
Evan Davis delivered the valedictory address and Tyler Gardner delivered the salutatory address.

On the Field
The boys baseball and girls softball teams had a lot of fun and improved a lot this year. Their coaches say they are looking forward to next season.

FFA Finals
The horse team placed second at the district contest while Lauren, Tori and Jaron qualified for state in creed and speaking. Lauren took first overall.

It's a Bling Thing
Stevi Jones and Brandyn Wiles say the best part about track is showing off your medals.
