Class of 2019

SENIOR WILLS

I, Brianna Esiline, will Kayla and Kylie Purdome my ability to sleep anywhere and everywhere, Ashlee Thompson my ability to write a paper in thirty minutes, my adequate direction skills to Courtney Hill, and my driving skills to Lauren Gilbert.

I, Tabitha Fowler, will my team all the wonderful memories, Tay all the times we laughed hysterically at each other, and all the senior girls all the crazy lunch periods. I leave the support, love, and good times to Jacob Stevens. Thank you CHS and all the staff for making my four years of high school what they were!

I, Brianna Guerin, will my love for volleyball to Paris Gilbert, the ability to be late to school every morning to Tucker Johnson, and to Blake Phillips the ability to do his own work for his last year of high school.

I, Miya Jones, will Izzy Ewing the ability to watch Netflix in every class and Paris Gilbert the ability to never have to do anything in Ag again.

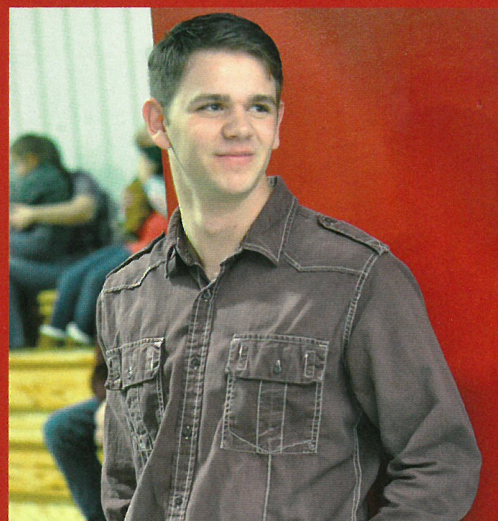

I, Taylor Loveland, will my ability to procrastinate until the last second to Paris Gilbert, my good attendance to Tori Vaughn, and my ability to rap locker room jams to Stevi Jones.

I, Mariasole Rampin, leave all my sweaters and suppoft to Paris, another set of curls to Courtney and all the laughs and tears to the volleyball team. Most of all, I will Chadwick School the good memories, the welcoming feeling, and the promise that we will see each other again.

I, Evan Smith, will Farris another Chiefs game, Stevi another hour of procrastination, Paris another talk about "The Office," Jaron my running ability, the basketball team another game, the cross country team the guts to finish, my classmates the best of luck, and my family all the love in the world.

I, Brady Stevens, will my huntin' skills to Blake Phillips. He has a hard time killing anything.

I, Brandyn Wiles, will my smartness to Brylee because he's gonna need a lick of it eventually, my guitars to Bop-O, and my attitude to Darian.

Working for a Living

Hayden Rozell and Trent Nalley mow lawns together in the summer. Trent also works with his dad, who owns All Amish Construction.

Ashlee works at Golden Corral in Branson. She said, "The things I love the most about my job are my coworkers and the friendly environment."

Lauren makes extra cash using her photography skills. She likes taking pictures of people, landscapes, and especially livestock.

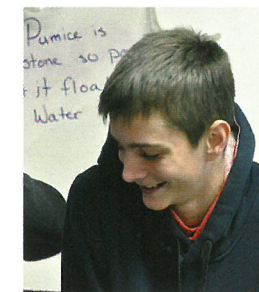

sweet sixteen

What does it mean to be sixteen?

"My favorite thing about being sixteen is being able to drive so that I don't have to be at school at 7:30 every morning."

Jaron VanHouden

"I like being sixteen because I finally have freedom and my parents aren't freaking out about my driving."

Zack Loveland

"Being sixteen means having more freedom, but at the same time more responsibility."

Tori Vaughan

"Being sixteen is really fun. The best part is having the ability to go places on my own."

TIPS

#HOWTOWIN

"I'm so excited for this years cheer season. Go Cardinals!"
Bianca Mitchell

"Run like Evan Smith if you want to win."
Jaron Vanhouden

"If you make a mistake, a bad bump, or a bad hit, start over new."
Destiny Nelson

Back to School Quotes

"I enjoyed summer, but I'm glad to be back at school with my friends!"
Courtney Hill

"This is not like High School Musical at all."
Mariasole Rampin

"Summer should've lasted longer."
Lauren Gilbert

"It's fun coming back and seeing all the familiar faces."
Hayden Rozell

"I missed my debates with Mr. Gandolf."
Tori Vaughan

JUNIOR HIGH

The junior high girls basketball team had a great season and took first place in the MTC Tournament. The junior high boys basketball team only had one eighth grader, but that did not stop them from getting some wins too.

BASKETBALL

Volleyball

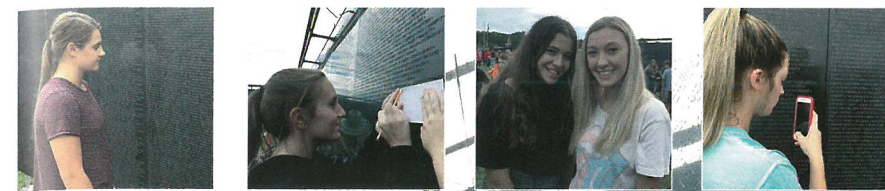

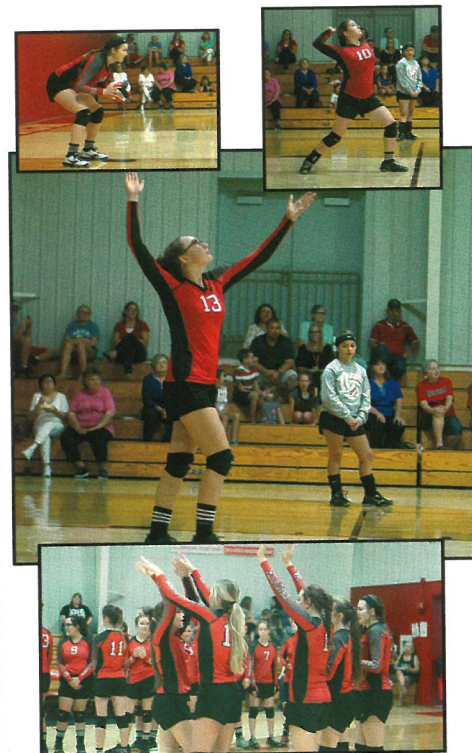

Season Begins

The Lady Cardinals volleyball season got off to a great start, including three straight wins in their conference.

Coach VanHouden said, "I am super proud of this group of girls. They work hard and fight hard until the very end."

She said the team also owed much of their success to returning players, and players willing to specialize in key areas.

What a way to start off a fun and exciting season!

The Wall That Heals

On September 21, students visited a traveling replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

Shredding at CHS

The Real Encounters stunt trio put on an assembly at Chadwick School. Lead motorcyclist Brad Bennett talked to students about good decision-making and invited them to attend a community-wide event hosted by the First Baptist Church later that night. Bennett said, "We are ministers. Even though we are a BMX show, we use it as a platform for ministry for the community."

Delaney Procell and Cohyn Goetz; Abigail Smith and Cameron Smith; and Tori Vaughn and Jaron VanHouden were each crowned Carnival King and Queen for their age groups.

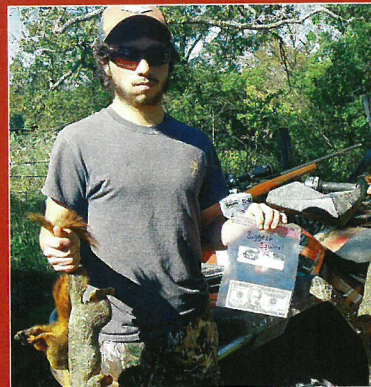

Chadwick Carnival

Squirrel Hunt

The Booster Club hosted its annual Squirrel Hunt Fundraiser.

Brady Stevens (top right) and his partner finished in fourth place overall and won the prize for biggest squirrel.

Colin Johnson also participated in the hunt and killed his first squirrel!

FFA GOES TO INDIANA

FFA members pose for a picture at the National FFA Convention in Indianapolis. They also took a zip line tour, checked out some oversized farm equipment, visited the Fair Oaks Dairy Farm, learned about wind turbines in Benton County, and watched Garth Brooks in concert.

Spooky FUN

Students in grades preschool through fourth dressed up in their favorite costumes and paraded down the halls. Middle and high school students handed out candy. Afterward, the elementary classes went back to their classrooms to play games, eat snacks, and party. Some of the older students got into the spirit by dressing up, too!

STATEBOUND XCXCXC

The Cross Country Team got a big send off from all the students before the big State race! Senior Evan Smith finished 6th overall out of 179 runners, earning All-State recognition.

Red Ribbon WEEK

Traven Hill puts his hair up for crazy hair day.

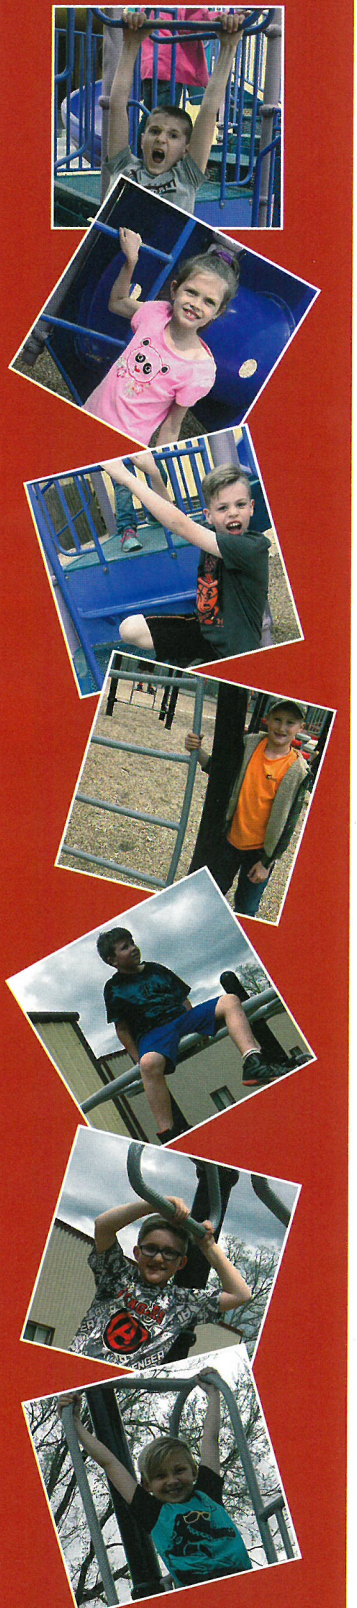

Mariah and Lydia dress up in '80s style clothing for decade day.

MONKEYING around

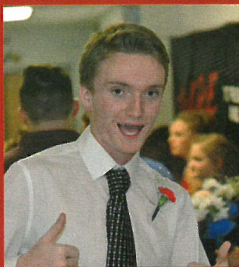

BALL #tips

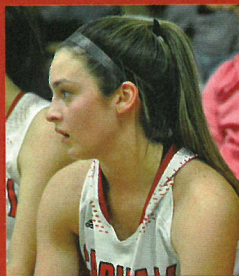

"No matter what the outcome of the game may be, keep playing to the best of your ability and never give up on your team."

Courtney Grimes

"Always work hard and give your best every practice and game."

Evan Smith

"Be friends with your teammates on and off the court. Encourage everyone to do their best and help each other out whenever someone needs help."

Stevi Jones

giving thanks

"I am thankful for my friends and sports."

Calvin Rains

"I am thankful for food and family. But mainly food."

Paris Gilbert

"I am thankful for my family, my boyfriend, my friends and Mari."

Destiny Nelson

"I am so thankful for my life and the opportunities therein... except maybe school."

Tori Vaughan

"I am thankful for my friends and for lunch."

Brianna Esiline

BASKETBALL

On November 19 and 20, the boys and girls basketball teams had their first games, starting the season with two great wins!

season

Veterans Day Assembly

On November 9, students participated in an assembly to honor our nation's soldiers past and present.

Sadie Hawkins dance

On November 2, the middle school students held a Sadie Hawkins Dance. Mason Rogers dressed up as Alfalfa (left) and Abigail Smith dressed as an angel (upper left). Not everyone wore costumes, but everyone had fun hanging out and dancing with their friends.

Homestead days

The Chadwick Foundation sponsored the annual Chadwick Homestead Days where students participated in ropemaking, sewing, quilting, and cupcake decorating.

Our brightest stars got to shine in the holiday concert!

DECORATIONS

Every door in the school is decorated for the annual contest. The winner in the elementary school division was the preschool class; the middle school winner was Mrs. Blaine's 6th grade class; and the high school winner was Mr. Walker's English III class.

Silly Moment

"I fell in the parking lot! Wanna see?"
Chloe Burkhart 8th grade.

XMAS break

"I'm going to celebrate Christmas at my Uncles house."
Mathurin Aldrich, 8th grade

"My Christmas break is going to be spent sleeping."
Conner Hull, 8th grade

GOING NUTS OVER THE CLASS PET

Meet Mort. Mort is a flying squirrel. He was caught inside Mrs. Rains's house and brought to live in Mrs. Larsen's classroom. The students fell in love immediately. They named him after the lemur in Madagascar, and he seems to be content living with the students. Lauren and Taylor enjoyed giving Mort a chance for a little exercise outside of his cage.

Beingⁱⁿ the SQUAD

"I like cheer because it's really fun, and the girls are really sweet."
Bianca Mitchell, 9th grade

"I have had the opportunity to be captain of an amazing group of girls, and it's super fun to dance, cheer, and act silly with them."
Brianna Guerin, 12th grade

"I like it because I get to be with my friends and have fun."
Aaliyah Weter, 9th grade

"Cheerleading tests my strengths. It allows me to experience new things, and I get to hang out with my best friends."
Kati Baugus, 9th grade

"All I'm going to be doing is opening my presents, eating, and sleeping."
Maddie Nalley, 8th grade

CHS

#cheerleaders

"Cheer can help bring your true self out and help you get closer to people."

Brianna Guerin

"Cheerleading is really fun and I love spending time with all the girls."

Bianca Mitchell

"Cheer brings people together like a little cheer family."

Kati Baugus

1,000 POINTS

Senior Evan Smith and juniors Trent Nalley and Stevi Jones all scored their 1000th point in basketball this season.

100TH DAY

The 100th day of school was filled with a lot of fun activities! All the little whippersnappers came to school dressed up as old-timers.

OF SCHOOL

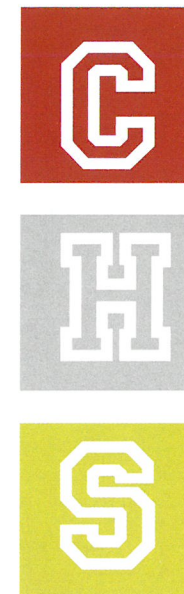

Mark Twain Conference Basketball Tournament

The Chadwick boys basketball team defeated Bradleyville in the conference tournament to place third overall.

The Lady Cardinals put up a good fight against Hurley, but suffered a heart-breaking loss. The game was close, but foul trouble and a shallow bench led to them finishing with only two players after the rest fouled out.

Un Viaje al Festival
The Spanish classes took a field trip to a multicultural festival - and Mexican Villa!

LIVESTOCK TEAM COLORADO TRIP

The Chadwick Livestock Team, which consists of Lauren Gilbert, Paden Gilbert, and Garrett Guerin, went on a trip to Colorado to watch the National Western Stock Show. They judged classes at Magness Land and Cattle, a widely acclaimed Limousin ranching operation headquartered in Platteville. Afterwards, they visited Colorado State University and the Winter Park Resort.

Paris Gilbert was crowned Homecoming Queen.

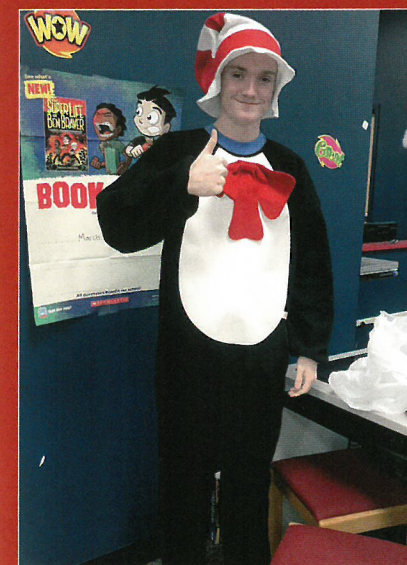

FFA PETTING Zoo

FFA Drive Your Tractor to School Day

Dr. Suess Day

Elementary classes celebrated Dr. Seuss's birthday with a variety of activities and by reading his books aloud. Senior Evan Smith dressed up as the Cat in the Hat to get kids pumped up. "You're not the real Cat in the Hat," said Bentlea Lewis. "I know you. You're Evan."

History Bowl

The Chadwick Academic Team participated in the annual history bowl at SBU in Bolivar.

They placed tenth out of twenty-five teams in their division.

BATTLE of the BRAINS

Chadwick hosted six other teams for their annual Battle of the Brains Tournament for small schools.

Mariasole Rampin was the fourth highest overall scorer in the entire tournament.

Chadwick players listen carefully to the question before Bianca rings in to give their standard guess: "Denzel Washington!"

"I like vanilla and chocolate because the syrup is so good on both."

Braiden Garrison

"Cookies and cream
is best because it has Oreos, and I love Oreos!"

Bristol Ballinger

"Plain vanilla. I like chocolate chip, but vanilla is the best!"

Learning Lacrosse

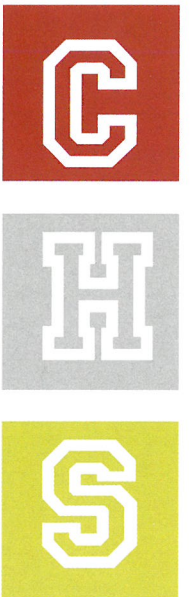

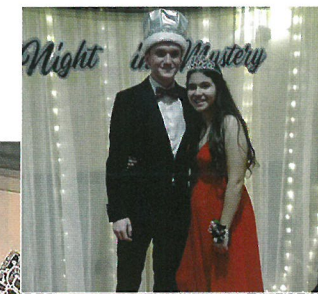

INDUCTION

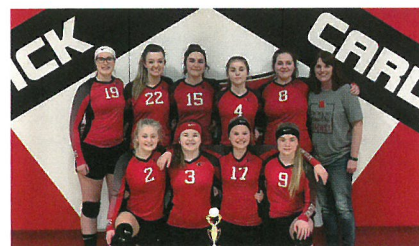

On March 20, the National Honor Society held a ceremony to induct new members. The NHS recognizes students who excel in scholarship, service, character, and leadership.

In addition, they inducted the very first members to Chadwick's new Junior Honor Society.

Middle School Volleyball

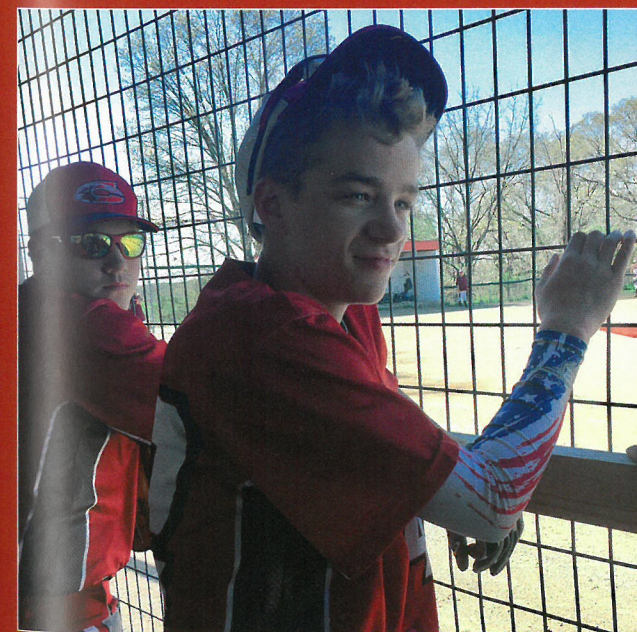

The Middle School Lady Cardinals Volleyball Team finished their season 14-0.

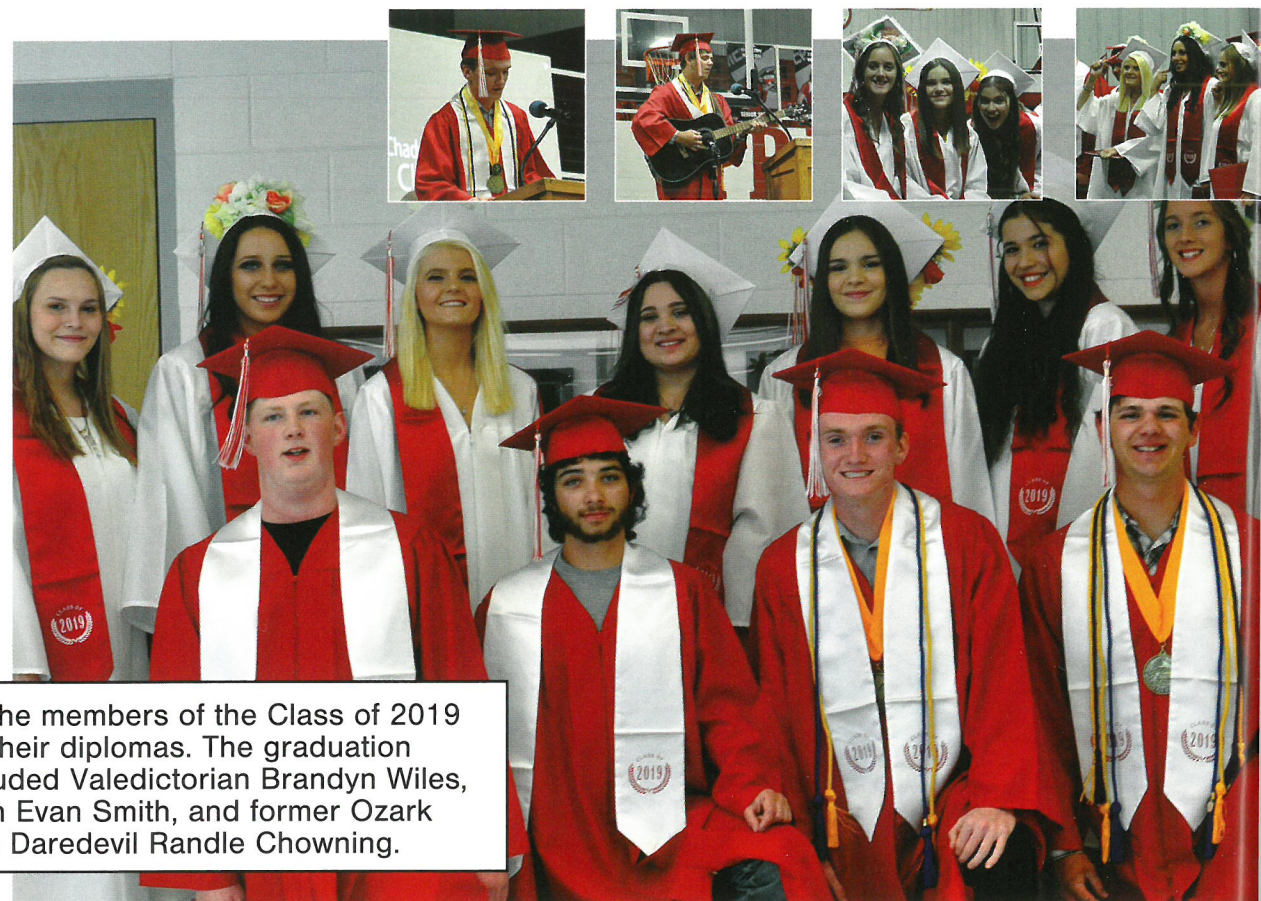

The Middle School B Team finished 7-0 as well for a doubly perfect season.

"I'm so proud of these two groups of girls," Coach Amy VanHouden said. "It was such an honor to get to coach them all this amazing season."

Eighth grader Natalie Parker said, "The team felt like family to me. We had a lot of fun this year. It probably helped that we won a lot."

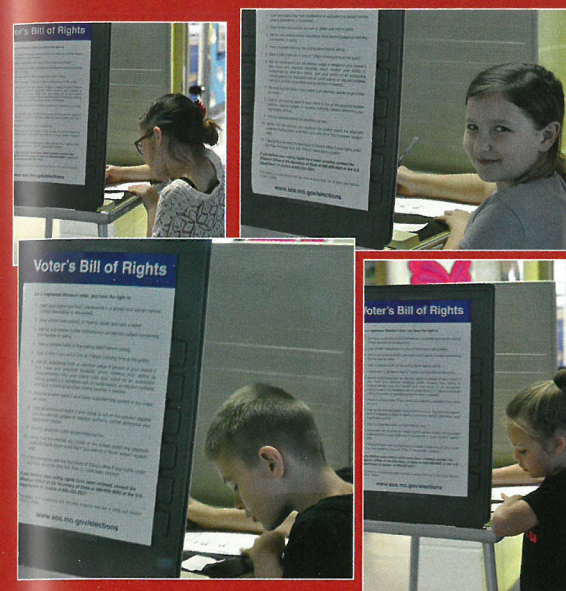

Take me out to the BALL GAME

On April 26, the members of the Class of 2019 received their diplomas. The graduation speakers included Valedictorian Brandyn Wiles, Salutatorian Evan Smith, and former Ozark Mountain Daredevil Randle Chowning.

2nd Graders Go to the Polls

Mrs. Mitchell taught the second graders about the voting process, including the electoral college. The class voted to decide on the class's favorite soda. Dr. Pepper was the clear winner, while Coca-Cola placed second overall.

SBU Signing

All-state runner Evan Smith signed with Southwest Baptist University to run cross country and track next fall. Evan's fellow teammates from the Chadwick cross country and track teams stood behind him for support.

MAP games

Sophomore Dakota Maggard won the donut-eating contest during the pep assembly for state testing. "It was delicious," he said.

Six teachers, including Mrs. Mitchell, took a pie in the face to raise money for the MAP rewards and incentives fund.

Students of all ages played Simon Says to practice following directions. They did great. Mrs. Linn said, "Simon is VERY impressed!"

Moving on Up

On April 23, the eighth grade, kindergarten, and preschool classes celebrated important milestones in their education. Family and friends gathered for graduation ceremonies and refreshments. Everyone was very proud, but the eighth graders seemed a little nervous about high school. Natalie Parker said, "We are all shook and unprepared."

Easter Egg Hunt

The preschool and elementary school students were surprised with a big Easter egg hunt located in the gym. Some of the high school students helped hide the eggs. Senior Evan Smith said, "I would have never imagined that on my last day of high school I would be hiding 564 eggs."
