

Chadwick School Foundation Scholarship

Purpose: The Foundation is committed to providing assistance to students who have distinguished themselves through school and community activities while showing academic achievement in high school. This year the foundation will award two scholarships to qualifying graduating seniors who will be furthering their education. This year's scholarship is dedicated to the late Sue Brillhart. We would like to honor Sue for her commitment to the Chadwick Community.

Award Components: One $1,000.00 and one $500.00 Scholarship.

Scholarship Guidelines:

- Applicant must be an eligible graduating senior currently enrolled at Chadwick High School
- A copy of your official high school transcript must accompany your application
- Applicant must have applied to an institution to continue his/her education or already have been accepted
- Applicant must participate in an informal interview (date will be announced at a later time)

Application Process: Complete the application online. It is located on the Chadwick School website. See your counselor for details.

Deadline for application is March 3, 2020.

Application must be turned into Mrs. Wilkerson by 12:00pm
